Mines in Comstock Lode District Crippled As Power System Burns

(By United Press Leased Wire)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 12.—The trans-continental line of the Southern Pacific railroad and wire lines of telephone and telegraph companies were reported threatened during the night by the forest fire burning near Floriston, in the higher levels of the Sierra Nevada mountains.

The fire was reported burning fiercely on both sides of the railroad along which the wire lines run, with a high wind frustrating all efforts at control.

Power lines of the Truckee River Power company were burned out, crippling mines of the Comstock lode which depended upon the company for power. Embers from the fire were falling in Verdi today and ashes were carried as far east as Reno.

Late reports today showed that, contrary to previous reports, the fire in the vicinity of El Portal, entrance to Yosemite valley, had not crossed the south fork of the Merced river. The west side of the fire line was described as in "good shape" today and the east side as having made a small break last night but now as under control. Yosemite Park, it was emphasized, is not in danger.

The only other fire of serious consequences was burning in the Merced river valley a few miles from El Portal in the vicinity of Yosemite National park. Farmers, woodsmen and convicts from the state highway camps near Briceburg were fighting the flames.

Other flames, including the dangerous blaze in Bautiste canyon, Cleveland National forest, were reported controlled.

The fire at Taylorsville in the Plumas National forest, has been controlled. It burned 24,000 acres of timber and a saw mill.

Man, 86, Does Antics on Rope Ladder

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 12.—The champion kid on the swinging ladders at Peninsula park is today looking to his laurels.

Elijah Sims, Turlock, Cal., an 86-year-old Civil war veteran, climbed the highest swinging link ladder at the park without exerting himself in the least. Most folks can't get to the top.

Then to prove he wasn't overdoing it, Sims climbed on up and stood erect on the top beam.

Man Who Shot Self in Heart Living

ABERDEEN, Wash., Aug. 12.—James Balderston, who shot himself through the heart last Saturday following a fit of "despondency", is still living and promises to become a rare case in medical history.

Despite a hemorrhage which followed the shooting, Balderston revived and now wants to live.

His home is in Pocatello, Idaho.

ORANGE GETS PLANT FOR TEXTILES

Involved the expenditure of $25,000 and the eventual employment of a number of skilled mechanics and craftsmen, a building permit today was issued at Orange for the erection of a manufacturing plant by the West Coast Textile company.

According to George Valeris, factory representative of the concern, construction of the building will begin at once.

The structure is to be located at the intersection of South Cypress and Almond streets and is to be of brick.

The building will be 110 feet long and 150 feet wide.

The West Coast Textile company recently selected Orange as the site for its factory after canvassing the entire Southern California district for a favorable location. The climatic conditions of Orange county are said by representatives of the company to be especially favorable for the manufacture of textile products.

The company has a plant in operation at Redlands at the present time, but plans to abandon the factory there, it was said, once the factory at Orange is completed.

CONTROL OF SYSTEM IS GIVEN CITY

Council Hears State's Report 'S. A. Water Pure As Any In Calif.'

Water distributed in Santa Ana by the municipal system is as pure as that distributed by any system in the state.

This declaration was embodied in a report submitted to the state health board by R. F. Goudy, Berkeley laboratory sanitary engineer, and was contained in an order of the board releasing to Santa Ana authorities full control of the local water system.

The order of release was presented at the meeting of the city council last night and was followed by instruction by the council to Walter Wray, water superintendent, to discontinue today chlorination of the water distributed from the reservoir on West First street.

Control of the system virtually has been in the hands of the state board since early last January.

Approved by C. E. Gillespie, director, and W. M. Dickey, secretary and executive officer of the board, Goudy's report on the local system reads, in part, as follows:

"A great number of bacteriological analyses have been made during the past five months. All of these with one exception, show extreme purity. The one exception, however, was a set of samples submitted to the Berkeley laboratory which showed some contamination in 10 c portions. These findings were directly contrary to findings of the Orange county laboratory over the same period."

"It is felt that the Santa Ana water works is now one of the safest water works in the state, and since the city has complied with all of the recommendations of this board, it is recommended that a permit to continue to supply water be granted."

It was suggested at the meeting that copies of the report be printed and distributed freely, the further suggestion being made that local residents include a copy in letters which they may write to friends residing at points outside of Santa Ana.

The city spent approximately $21,000, it was recounted, in correction of conditions at the First street water plant responsible for an epidemic starting here in the early part of last January.

Supply Ship Reports Ice Breaking Up at Angmagalik; Aviators Jubilant

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo., Aug. 12.—Lieut. James H. Doolittle, attempting a non-stop flight from San Diego to Denver, was forced to land here at 12:30 today.

After re-fueling, Doolittle left at 1:20 for Denver, expecting to arrive there at 3:30.

No difficulties except bad weather conditions were encountered by the flyers, low lying clouds and a strong wind from the north hindering them somewhat.

Lieut. Doolittle is accompanied by Lieut. Ewart Plank army air observer.

Names Counsel For Revenue Bureau Probe

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 12.—Earl Davis of Detroit, recently resigned as assistant attorney general of the United States, has been chosen chief counsel of the senatorial committee appointed to investigate the internal revenue department, it was announced here today by Senator James Couzens, chairman.

Davis will leave for Washington Thursday to begin his work. He will make a preliminary report to the committee at its next meeting which is scheduled for September 2.

Alienist Undergoes Severe Grilling During Cross Examination

(By United Press Leased Wire)

CRIMINAL COURT ROOM, CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—The defense in the sensational Loeb-Leopold murder hearing rested its case today after building one of the most fantastic medical structures ever reared in a criminal court.

For more than two weeks Clarence Darrow, brilliant defense attorney, through nationally known alienists, has pieced together a bizarre case of "irresponsibility," bringing into play such terms as "split personality," "diseased functioning of the mind," "childhood fantasies," and exploiting the endocrine glands, a comparatively new field of investigation for neuro-psychiatrists.

Darrow hopes to convince Chief Justice John R. Caverly, sitting as judge and jury, that Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, sons of millionaires are not entirely responsible for their murder of Robert Franks. Darrow asks that the youths be spared the gallows or insane asylum. He wants them jailed.

Members of the Loeb and Leopold families were questioned this afternoon to help round out the defense case.

Foreman Leopold, brother of Nathan, Allan Loeb, brother of Richard, and Jacob Loeb, an uncle were put on largely to show that ransom was not a motive in the kidnapping and murder.

Nathan's brother testified that Nathan was given an automobile by his father, who also paid all of its upkeep. He said Nathan's university tuition, in fact, every expense he had, plus an allowance of $124 a month, was paid by his millionaire father. Nathan Leopold, sr., is president of the Morris Paper company.

A wireless received today from the Danish ship Gertrude Rask, which is to serve as a supply ship for the flyers, said she had broken through the ice at the bay of Angmagalik today and that the waters are now open. This assures the flyers of a landing place.

The two American aviators here, Lieut. Lowell Smith and Lieut. Eric Nelson, were jubilant when the word was received. They have been here about a week.

THROUGH HEARS NOMINEE SCORE COOLIDGE DESPITE DRENCHING RAIN

(By United Press Leased Wire)

CLARKSBURG, W. VA., Aug. 12.—Coat collar curled closely about his neck, his face dripping, his white hair dewy and glistening with rain drops, a white tarpaulin held about him by a young soldier with an overseas cap cocked over his left ear—

That is the picture of John W. Davis that Clarksburg has today, for he had all the appearance of a sea captain directing his ship in the teeth of a driving gale as he stood in the little speaker's booth and accepted the Democratic nomination for President.

The boys around the Commercial club were complaining today that Providence was unkind to Clarksburg. But Davis had no complaint. He didn't even have a sore throat from his wetting. But he had a new knowledge of his standing with his own home folks.

Defy Rain Storm

Davis' neighbors and friends gave him a demonstration of their affection and admiration that was unmistakable. They stood in a driving rain for two hours and a half to hear what he had to say in his speech of acceptance.

Every point that Davis made was received through the rain in such a way that brought smiles of appreciation to the handsome Democratic nominee as he stood contesting the adverse conditions.

At one time the rain poured so hard that even Davis was apparently ready to leave his speech unfinished rather than subject his friends and neighbors to a further soaking.

"Go on, John—go on talking," came from thousands of throats. "We're with you 'till hell freezes over," roared a gangling mountaineer, who stood just below the speaker's booth. And Davis accepted the verdict with a grim smile as he wiped the water from his face with a dripping handkerchief.

DAVIS OPENS HOT ATTACK ON G.O.P.

The rain started when Senator Walsh of Montana was half way through his address of notification. He was given a big ovation but it was noticeable that he got more cheers by the mere mention of Davis' name than his references to the oil scandal.

Davis, in his speech of accepting the nomination, took a stand squarely on the Democratic platform and appealed for party unity to bring success in November and insure performance of its pledges.

He declared that the "supreme need of the hour" is to restore the confidence of the people in their government. From President Coolidge down, Davis was spared from the loss of faith through the "gross misdeeds" of Republican officials.

Urges Tax Reform.

Davis struck boldly at the "allied forces of greed and dishonesty," condemned the dreamy radical and "smug conservative" alike, called for the right enforcement of laws against monopolies, urged higher taxes on "swollen incomes" and demanded full due for labor and the farmers. While reserving the details for carrying out the pledges in the platform, he freely expressed his views on all important issues. They are in brief as follows:

LABOR—"The fight of labor to an adequate wage, carried under healthful conditions, the right to organize in order to obtain it and the right to bargain for it collectively, through agents of its own choosing. They must not be impaired by injunction.  Labor has a right to a voice in all matters of government, that directly or peculiarly affects its own rights."

FARMERS—"Remove tariff discriminations against the farmers. The government by doing its share toward a European settlement shall help to revive and enlarge his foreign markets and provide active government work in assisting in the co-operative marketing movement. Supply the farmers with information to aid in marketing crops. Every power of government must be exerted in time of distress."

For Rail Legislation.

RAILROADS—"Adequate service of transportation at reasonable rates. It is quite as important to the railroads that the farmers should prosper as it is to the farmer that the railroad should be adequately paid for service rendered."

OLD FOES NEAR AGREEMENT ON RUHR POLICY

(By United Press Leased Wire)

LONDON, Aug. 12.—The French and Belgians will not withdraw their troops from the Ruhr this year and probably not until next summer, according to decisions reached at direct parlor parades between Premier Herriot and the German delegation.

The international conference has left the field clear for these negotiations, which are believed to be proceeding satisfactorily. Well informed observers expect word to the date of evacuation by tonight.

A final protocol, incorporating all agreements reached at the conference may be signed Friday. Meanwhile the Germans have begun to put out feelers to establish contact with the Anglo-American banking group regarding underwriting the $200,000,000 proposed loan.

The council of the "Big Fourteen," composed of two representatives of each country, approved the reports of the various committees with only a few comparative minor reservations.

When the French and Belgians and Germans got together on the subject of military evacuation of the occupied areas, the former proposed two years as a limit within which withdrawal should be completed. The Germans suggested six months.

It is believed that the time finally decided upon will be between nine months and a year.

COUNTY ASKS S. A. TO SHARE MEAT INSPECTOR SALARY

Representing the board of supervisors, S. H. Finley, a member, asked the city council last night to pay a portion of the cost of maintaining a meat inspector for the eight incorporated cities of the county. The amount of the cost apportioned to Santa Ana was $65 a month. The matter was referred to a committee composed of Councilmen George McPhee and E. B. Collier.

Finley explained that the county was maintaining a meat inspection department and that authority of the department did not extend to the incorporated cities. He said that by the eight cities of the county joining in the employment of an inspector, protection would be offered against the sale here of uninspectioned meats.

In response to a question asked by Mayor John W. Tubbs as to the salary that would be paid the inspector, and intimation by Tubbs that Santa Ana's portion of the cost should be taken care of by the county board of health, Finley said that he did not know definitely, but thought the salary would be approximately $200 per month. He explained that meat inspection did not come under the department of health.

Way of Salt Water Dumping

Securing from Finley admission that the county of Orange is spending virtually $10,000 annually for operation of its health department, Tubbs asked Finley if he did not think the $900 Santa Ana has contracted to pay the county for directing the health department of Santa Ana was rather out of proportion to what the county will spend. Finley said it probably was.

J. W. McCurdy, city sanitary inspector, was authorized by the council to serve notice on vendors of ice cream that they must not dump salt water from ice cream packers in the street gutters. Prosecution will follow failure to comply with the order. It was asserted that the salt water has a very damaging effect on pavement. Carbonated water is even more damaging, according to McCurdy, who said many retailers of

OIL BARONS HIT WALSH'S RADIO TALK

Dohenys Ask Indictments Be Quashed, Claiming Jurors Listened In On Speech.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Edward L. Doheny, lessee of naval oil reserve No. 1 in California, and his son, E. L. Doheny, Jr., today filed motions in District of Columbia supreme court asking that their indictments in the oil cases be quashed on the ground that Senator Walsh of Montana, prosecutor of the senate oil inquiry, made a radio speech on the oil investigation "with the intent that the grand jury members should hear his statement."

The petition set forth Walsh's speech in full and declared Walsh intended the jurors "listening in on radio receiving sets, should hear his statement."

"A great number of bacteriological analyses have been made during the past five months. All of these with one exception, show extreme purity. The one exception, however, was a set of samples submitted to the Berkeley laboratory which showed some contamination in 10 c portions. These findings were directly contrary to findings of the Orange county laboratory over the same period."

5 MINERS SHOT DOWN IN OKLA. UNION WAR

WILBURTON, Okla., Aug. 12.—Five non-union miners were shot down from ambush in the coal fields near here early today. None of the workers were injured seriously.

The shooting occurred shortly after the night shift of workmen left the Bull Hill mine. The five men were walking home when a blaze of buckshot felled them.

Feeling in the mining community was tense and extra guards were stationed at the Latimer county court house, where thirty-six miners were scheduled to be tried for riot in connection with a clash between union and non-union forces near here a month ago. At that time 100 armed strikers drove 200 non-union workers out of the county.

The wounded men were Owen McElroy, Caddie Coffee, Everett D. Wards, Ace Williams and William Wilson.

They told Sheriff Austin Park that three men fled from the scene after the attack and disappeared in the woods. Park took his bloodhounds to the woods but was unable to pick up the trail.

Dissatisfaction among the miners in Latimer county resulted from efforts of operators to run their mines on an open shop basis.

GERMAN ENVOY SOON TO QUIT U. S., CLAIM

(By United Press Leased Wire)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Otto Wiedfeldt, within about a month, will resign as German ambassador to Washington and return to Germany, it was understood here today.

An agreement between the Berlin government and Wiedfeldt on the ambassador's recall within that time is said to have been reached. Wilhelm Cuno, chancellor of Germany during the occupation of the Ruhr by French and Belgians, is regarded here now as the most likely successor to Wiedfeldt.

There are two main factors behind the Wiedfeldt scheduled recall, which, it is said, will be at Wiedfeldt's request.

1.—Wiedfeldt, the first German ambassador to Washington since the war, came to the post here on the understanding that he would remain only a short time to help in the re-establishment of friendly relations with the United States. He formerly was a director of the famous Krupp works. Wiedfeldt's stay here has been extended frequently, however, and he has now been in Washington more than two years.

2.—While the German embassy will make no comment whatever regarding Wiedfeldt's recall, even to confirm that fact, it is known on excellent authority that the principal reason behind his coming departure is that his relations with certain of the leaders of the Berlin government have not been the happiest.

$50,000 BOOZE CARGO SEIZED AT SAN PEDRO

(By United Press Leased Wire)

SAN PEDRO, Cal., Aug. 12.—Trapped, according to the police, in the act of unloading 300 cases of imported liquor from a small boat, ten alleged rum runners were arrested at dawn today at Terminal Island, San Pedro.

The confiscated liquor, valued at $50,000, is said to be a small part of the cargo of a schooner which has been lying at anchor for several days, twelve miles off Catalina Island.

Two trucks and two high priced touring cars were confiscated along with the 300 cases of champagne, gin and Scotch whiskey.

The liquor is said to have been intended for consumption in Hollywood.

So extensive were the plans of the alleged bootleggers that they had built a road, half a mile long, with plank and sawdust from the end of the paved road to the scene of the arrest.

"30" BULLETINS

Eight bids opened today by the board of supervisors here in connection with the contract for graveling Garden Grove boulevard, between Huntington Beach boulevard and Los Alamitos boulevard, were referred to J. L. McBride, county superintendent of highway, to be catalogued. McBride was expected to report back to the board this afternoon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 12.—Five men were reported to have been buried when the walls of a building under construction at Eddy and Jones streets here collapsed today.

FROSTBURG, Maryland, Aug. 12.—Mary Kathryn Mitchell, 4 years old, who was "kidnaped" Sunday, today was found sitting on a rock in the woods about three miles from where she disappeared, eating a green apple. The child was found by four members of the posse that has scoured the entire section for her. With the exception of scratches, she was unharmed.

COUNCIL ORDERS WATER CHLORINATION STOPPED AS CITY GETS CONTROL

ice cream were in the habit of dumping the water in the gutters. A request made by government authorities that the city arrange a program here for national defense test day, September 12, was referred to the chamber of commerce.

The city council received acknowledgment made by President and Mrs. Calvin Coolidge of the receipt of the resolution of sympathy extended by the council following the recent death of Calvin Coolidge Jr.

Valuation $17,988,000. W. C. Jerome, county auditor, advised the board that the city's assessed valuation had been computed at $17,988,215. The figure was submitted for consideration of the council in fixing the tax levy.

An ordinance fixing the tax rate was given its first reading last night. The rate was left blank and will be filled in when the ordinance is given its final reading next Monday evening.

A petition filed for improving West Washington avenue, from Lowell street to Artesia street, with five inch pavement full width of the street, was referred to the city engineer for checking.

Without commenting on the subject, the council referred to the committee of the whole, resolutions made by the Santa Ana Board of Realtors urging the calling of an election to vote bonds for equipping the city for generating electrical energy for street lighting purposes.

All bids submitted for paving

East Santa Clara avenue, from Bush street to Lincoln street, were rejected. Submitting a proposal of $44,473.02 for the work, George Simpson of Orange, was 42 cents lower than B. R. Ford, Santa Ana contractor. Simpson, however, was short $473.09 in his bond, and because of the irregularity a majority of the council voted to reject all bids. The clerk was instructed to readvertise for proposals.

Recorder To Vacation
W. F. Heathman, city recorder, was given permission to leave the state during a vacation of two weeks, beginning August 14. He announced that Justice Jack Landell of San Juan Capistrano would preside in his court during his absence.

Councilman Nat Noff, City Engineer W. G. Knox and Water Superintendent Wray were appointed a committee to investigate the request of G. M. Gilmore and others for permission to put in a four and a half foot instead of a five-foot sidewalk on East McFadden street, between Orange avenue and Maple street. Property owners desire to make a two foot parking instead of an eighteen inch parking, as would be necessary with a five-foot walk.

Asserting that water stands in the gutter virtually all the time, four residents near the west end of Fairview avenue protested against the pavement recently installed on the street. City Engineer Knox was directed to handle the situation in the best possible manner.

PLAN REDWOODS AS MEMORIAL TO LANE

BERKELEY, Aug. 12.—To honor the memory of Franklin K. Lane, former Secretary of the Interior, who was the first president of the Save the Redwoods League and a pioneer in the cause of preserving these giant trees, a magnificent redwood tract at Kettintelbe, Humboldt county, California, will be dedicated as the Franklin K. Lane Memorial Grove on Sunday, August 24th, at 2 p. m. This announcement was made today by the Save the Redwoods League, through Dr. John C. Merriam, President of the Carnegie Institution of Washington and present head of the League, and J. D. Grant of San Francisco, Chairman of the League's board of directors. Simple and appropriate outdoor ceremonies under the ancient trees will mark the dedication of the grove.

Governor Friend W. Richardson has been invited to attend, as has also Secretary of Commerce Herbert C. Hoover, chairman of the Franklin K. Lane Memorial Committee, who is now in California. Mrs. Franklin K. Lane, now a resident of San Francisco, and members of her family will be guests of honor at the ceremonies. A bronze tablet set in a natural granite boulder dedicating the grove to the memory of Franklin K. Lane will be unveiled as a part of the exercises. Invitations have been sent out to the 5,000 members of the Save the Redwoods League, to public officials of the state and nation, and the public generally is cordially invited to attend.

The Franklin K. Lane Memorial Grove is one of the finest tracts of timber in the redwood belt and contains some of the largest and most symmetrical specimens of these trees, many of them close to 2,000 years old. It contains practically 200 acres of present time and was purchased by a fund established by the friends and admirers of Franklin K. Lane, headed by E. E. Ayer of Chicago, a Councillor of the Save the Redwoods League. A further fund for the purchase of additional area and for the improvement of the grove and the public camp ground in conjunction with it, is expected, will be raised, although the grove as it now stands is a complete unit. This memorial grove has been deeded to the state of California to stand as a part of the Humboldt State Redwood Park. The Franklin K. Lane Memorial Grove is located on the Redwood Highway at Kettintelbe (the old Indian name of the place for years known as Phillipsville), Humboldt county, 228.6 miles north of Sausalito and 65 miles south of Eureka. It borders the South Fork of the Eel River.

In making public this gift, Dr. John C. Merriam declared that nothing more appropriate could have been done. "The dignity of such a memorial appeals to the imagination," Dr. Merriam said. "The significance of the Save the Redwoods movement as conducted by the League lies in its effort to preserve for future generations these majestic specimens of forest life that are threatened with extinction. The establishment of the Franklin K. Lane Memorial Grove is one form of expression that aids the purpose of the League, and it is welcomed not only because of the preservation accomplished, but also because it forms a fitting tribute to the memory of a man who was an outstanding national figure and whose life was devoted to the service of the state and the nation."

"Before selection purposes a careful survey of the redwoods region was made by those who had the matter in charge. They sought a tract of redwoods that would be not only distinctive and attractive in appearance, but also one that could be readily reached by his friends, and in which they could take a pride, as being worthy of the distinguished man whose name they are honoring. The took over the witness again. Countering Crowe's efforts to show that the boys' defective judgment was nothing more than normal, the defense brought out from the witness that a number of thefts and other crimes, such as throwing bricks through the windshields of passing automobiles, were cases of a real defect in judgment.

EYESIGHT DEFECTS ARE PROVED COSTLY

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Defective eyesight in the public schools is costing the taxpayers of the nation at least $130,000,000 annually, it was asserted by the Eyesight Conservation Council of America, which, in a statement sent to directors of summer schools throughout the country, urges organized conservation of vision as a social and economic need.

The council points out that poor eyesight is responsible for much of the retardation in schools, and makes public the results of investigations showing that a large proportion of backward children have visual defects.

Accompanying the statement is a report revealing that heavy moral and financial losses arise from this evil. Approximately 25 per cent of all school children in the United States, the council finds, are retarded in their studies and fully one-third of this retardation is conservatively estimated as due to defective vision.

If this is a correct estimate, there are at least 2,000,000 school children in the United States one or more years behind in their studies because of defective vision, says the council's report, continuing: "According to the United States bureau of education the cost of public elementary and secondary education for the entire United States averaged in 1920, $64.16 per pupil a year. If each one of the 2,000,000 retarded children in the United States, as estimated, was forced to drop back only one year, the cost would be $390,000,000."

RUM RUNNERS CARRY GIN IN CAKES OF ICE

OGDENSBURG, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Advent of summer weather has spoiled one of the latest, and by far the most ingenious methods of bootlegging which has come to the attention of local prohibition enforcement agents. Large quantities of alcohol and gin, colorless liquids, are believed to have been smuggled across the Canadian border inside of cakes of ice, which have never been subject to examination on the part of the authorities.

TOLD STING OF BEE WOULD CURE NEURITIS

CHADRON, Ohio, Aug. 12.—Three bees were permitted—yes, even encouraged—to sink their stinging appendages deep into the arm of William R. Jones, a salesman, who said that he had been advised that the stinging of bees would cure his neuritis, from which he had suffered three years. "There was little sensation," Jones said after the bees had performed their duty. "Anyway, there wasn't enough to overshadow the effects of neuritis."

Franklin K. Lane Memorial Grove, meets all the requirements. It is a complete grove, of adequate size, and will be part of the system of state redwood parks for which forest lovers are striving. It is a bit of virgin forest, containing some of the finest trees to be found in all the redwood region, which extends from Monterey county to a short distance beyond the Oregon boundary.

DAVIS SCORES REPUBLICANS IN SPEECH

TARIFF—"The exorbitant rates and discriminatory provisions of the present tariff law must be wiped out and in their place must be written, with fairness to all and favors to none, a statute designed primarily to raise revenue for the support of the government and framed on a truly competitive basis."

GOVERNMENT ECONOMY—"Economy in every part of the government and strengthening of the budget system."

PROHIBITION—"Why the question is it not the law? I would hold in contempt any public official who took an oath to support the constitution, making at the same time a mental reservation whereby a glib word of that great document is excluded from his vow."

FOREIGN RELATIONS—"A pledge in the name of the Democratic party to co-operate in every peace move. A flat endorsement of the world court and the League of Nations."

NATIONAL DEFENSE—"To maintain an adequate national defense until reason takes the place of force."

RELIGIOUS TOLERANCE—"While no organization is named, Davis denounced bigotry, intolerance and race prejudice as alien to the spirit of America and declared it the solemn duty of Americans to oppose any challenge to this doctrine, organized or unorganized, under whatever name or in whatever character it may appear. If elected, he said, he would set up no standard of religious faith or racial origin as a qualification to hold office."

LABOR LEADERS SCORE SPEECH BY DAVIS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Criticism of the American Federation of Labor was directed today at the acceptance speech of John W. Davis, which caused a stir here because of unexpected labor concessions.

An unsigned statement issued at the Federation stated:

"The speech excited rather caustic comment among spokesmen for labor. They see in the address an ineffective effort to apologize for the Democratic platform, which has been branded 'unacceptable.'"

At the same time the federation announced enlargement of its campaign committee, which it states "is preparing to fire with big guns in the campaign to elect the independent La Follette ticket and to elect candidates for congress whose records warrant the support of labor."

Case Dismissed Against Insane Hospital Inmate

Everett O'Dowd, 32, of Huntington Beach, who was charged with a statutory offense several months ago following an alleged attack upon a Huntington Beach girl, and who went to an insane asylum after a jury had determined him to be mentally irresponsible, was today at liberty.

Released from the Norwalk hospital a few days ago as cured, O'Dowd appeared before Judge J. B. West late yesterday in department 1 of the superior court, where the statutory charge was dismissed on motion of the district attorney's office.

In a statement issued today from the district attorney's office, it was explained that, inasmuch as O'Dowd's insanity conviction provides what was regarded as an insurmountable defense to the criminal charge, it was decided to drop his prosecution.

Wife Humiliated Him, Man's Plea In Divorce Suit

His wife nagged and abused him, also humiliated him before others, by declaring that he didn't support her, Charles T. Montague, of Placentia, alleged in a suit for divorce, filed today in the superior court here against Helen F. Montague, of Hemet.

While they were at Hemet last May, Mrs. Montague refused to return to their home in Placentia with him, Montague alleged, and remained in Hemet, associating with other men, he charged.

The Montagues were married at Riverside April 12, 1923, and separated May 24, 1924.

CLASH WITH CHIEF BRINGS SUSPENSION

(By United Press Leased Wire)
LONG BEACH, Aug. 12.—Because he accused Captain of Detectives Worley of "butting in" on his investigation of the tangled marital affairs of J. A. Jordan, alleged bigamist, Detective A. H. Smith was under a ten day suspension without pay today, for insubordination, following his threat to ask that the case against Jordan be dismissed.

Jordan, who is charged with having married seven women without securing a divorce from at least three of them, will be given a preliminary hearing Aug. 18.

COURT CANCELS LEASE
Charles E. Borchard today held clear title to his property at Fairview, by virtue of a superior court decree cancelling an oil lease held by Old Mission Oil Royalties, Inc. Judge Z. B. West granted the decree late yesterday.

LEAVES $10,000 ESTATE
A $10,000 estate was left by the late C. J. Phelps, who died here August 7, it was shown today in a petition filed in the superior court by the widow, Nettie Phelps, asking letters of administration. The estate consists of cash and personal property. Mrs. Phelps and a son, Harry, of South Bend, Indiana, were named in the petition as heirs.

Wife Prepares to Support Self As She Asks Decree

Seeking divorce on grounds of alleged desertion, Mrs. Josephine Bolton, of El Modena, had filed suit in the superior court here to day against Milton M. Bolton.

The Boltons wed at El Modena April 29, 1913, and separated there January 20, 1923. Mrs. Bolton, who stated in her complaint that she is fitting herself for self support by attending an educational institution, asks for $30 a month for support of her daughter, aged 10. Attorney H. L. Dearing, of Orange, represents the plaintiff.

This Simple Idea has Made Fashion Comfortable

A young shoe clerk in an obscure Kansas town invented the FEETURE Arch, a simple little device that keeps the shoe rigid when the weight of the body rests upon it, yet most flexible in all other positions the foot takes.

It takes new and wonderful comfort to the most stylish shoes you can buy. It detracts not a whit from any trick of fashion a designer cares to evolve. It means utter comfort for every woman without the sacrifice of style.

News Briefs

The Wyoming Society of Southern California will hold its summer picnic Saturday at Sycamore Grove park, Los Angeles, according to word received here today.

Armed with letters from both the senior and junior Chambers of Commerce—letters urging that the 1924 convention of the California division of the International Association of Criminal Identification be held in Santa Ana—Herman Zabel, superintendent of the Orange county bureau of identification, left today for Oakland to attend the state division convention, August 13 to 18.

The birth of a daughter, Ruth Naomi, Sunday, to Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Plaxco, who reside near Anaheim, was reported here today. Mrs. Plaxco was formerly Miss Elsie McWilliams, for two years a member of The Register's clerical staff.

1883 DEED SUIT DISPUTE IS AIRD

E. L. Prothero, local rancher, took the witness stand here today in the superior court, to aid his counsel, Attorney Otto Sanaker in tracing title to Prothero's land, at Washington and Grand avenues, back to a deed executed in 1883. Prothero testified at the trial of his suit against J. F. Boose, in involving dispute over title to a twenty-six foot strip of land, originally a part of Prothero's holdings, it was alleged, and granted to predecessors of Boose as right-of-way for a road to the Boose property.

Sanaker and Attorney A. E. Koepsel, representing Boose, developed a disagreement today in court over Sanaker's contention that Clinton Andre, who owned the two properties in 1883, was common grantor of both parties in the present case. Koepsel contended that title must be traced back a step beyond Andre's ownership to disclose the real status of the rival claims.

Spouse Jealous, Wife's Suit Avers

In filing suit here today in the superior court for divorce from her husband, N. S. Rulon, Mrs. Mildred Rulon of Santa Ana, charged cruelty to her spouse. He was jealous, she alleged, and false accusations, she added, of associating with other men. The Rulons were married here April 18, 1917, and separated August 1, this year. Attorney Roland Thompson represents Mrs. Rulon in the action.

Pair in Oil Suit Settle Contention

Charles Dameron and Victor Porter settled their dispute over an oil lease out of court, it was learned today, the settlement being announced in Judge Z. B. West's department of the superior court, here late yesterday, the time set for trial of Dameron's suit against Porter.

Dameron sued to set aside an oil lease held by Porter on Dameron's property at Huntington Beach.

DITCH BATHING BLOOMS AS FIVE DROWN

PHOENIX, Aug. 12.—Drastic action by the state to prevent bathing in irrigation ditches loomed today as the result of five children being drowned within the last few days.

BORN IN FLIVVER.

SANDY, Ore., Aug. 12.—Born in a flivver! Such was the lot of the three-pound baby girl of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pillister. The child drew its first breath in its mother's arms on the back seat of a "lizzie" while the parents were hurrying to Pleasant Valley to await the doctor's arrival.

BOY ARRESTED WHEN POLICE FIRE SHOTS

Undaunted by shots fired by Officers Sid Smithwick and Earl Lentz, 18-year-old Cutler Westcott, who claims to be a local civil engineer, led the policemen and a large posse of curious persons a chase through irrigation ditches and among bean stalks for a distance of more than a mile this morning before he was caught and lodged in the county jail on a charge of burglary.

The chase led from Fifth and French streets to Washington and Grand avenues where the young man was finally arrested, completely exhausted and unwilling to offer resistance.

While the officers were shooting over Westcott's head in their attempt to stop him, persons residing in the vicinity telephoned the police that a crowd of men were having a riot near Fruit and Poinsettia streets.

According to Smithwick, Westcott had been accused by his aunt, Mrs. John Stingen of Fifth and French streets, with having broken into her house, forced open a desk and taken a bunch of keys with which she said he unlocked her garage and drove away in her automobile. The automobile was returned, but Mrs. Stingen's police when Westcott happened to be on her front porch. The young man was said to have admitted his guilt when confronted by an officer, but before the officer could get within reach of him, he had darted down the street.

Average Bicycle Theft Each Day

Thieves in Santa Ana are maintaining their average of a bicycle a day despite the strenuous efforts being made by local authorities to prevent such thefts, according to City Marshal L. C. Rogers. The latest victim was Kioshi Higashi of 906 East Fifth street whose bicycle was stolen last night from his back yard.

2 SANITARIUM BUILDINGS, IS 1924 PLAN

Only two units of the tri-counties tuberculosis sanitarium will be erected during the next year, an administration building and the primary building, the extent of building operations for the present.

This was the information divulged here today by officials who attended a conference at Riverside yesterday. Supervisors S. H. Finley, Leon O. Whitwell and William Schumacher, with Dr. H. E. Zander, made up the Orange county delegation, which conferred with Riverside county supervisors and Supervisor Anderson of Imperial county.

The conferees decided, it was said, to limit expenditures for the coming year's budget to the two buildings specified. The Orange county officials expressed themselves in favor of requiring that patients received at the sanitarium must have resided a certain length of time in the county from which they apply for admission. Otherwise, the officials fear, the institution would be at once flooded by an influx of patients from all points of the nation.

That deaths from tuberculosis in the three counties during the last five years have totalled 2017, with Orange county fatalities numbering less than 500, was shown from figures made public at yesterday's conference. Riverside and Imperial counties each had 760 deaths in that period, Orange county having but 497.

A residence restriction upon patients received at the proposed sanitarium was discussed at the meeting, local officials said. Orange county officials expressed themselves in favor of requiring that patients received at the sanitarium must have resided a certain length of time in the county from which they apply for admission. Otherwise, the officials fear, the institution would be at once flooded by an influx of patients from all points of the nation.

BAND LOOKS FOR RECORD CROWD

According to D. C. Clanton, the Santa Ana Municipal band today was anticipating an attendance at its concert at Birch park in excess of the crowds that have attended past programs.

The program is dedicated to the military organizations of the city, the director said, adding that the program of band numbers would be well known and popular military selections.

Songs by a quartette of Legionnaires and vocal solos by Mrs. C. E. Scale, soprano, it was stated, will be additional features of the program.

The grand medley of war songs, arranged for the band by the director, it was said, probably would be a number that would receive the greatest attention from the audience. It will embrace strains from a number of the most popular of the world war songs, the director said.

OFFICER EXPLAINS 'TRIANGLE' RAID

City Marshal J. A. Porter of Newport Beach for the third time today described in court a raid he led upon a cottage at Newport Beach, where he arrested Glenn S. Brookins and Mrs. Addie Wiley. Anaheim, now on trial in the superior court here on a statutory charge.

The marshal was led by attorneys for the third time over various steps of the way and through each alleged scene of the surprise raid. Porter was among the several witnesses summoned for the state today as Prosecutor C. N. Mozley was closing his case against Brookins and his pretty former employee.

Among the witnesses was H. R. Greeley and Mrs. Greeley, owners of the cottage rented, it was claimed, by Brookins and Mrs. Wiley. The Greeleys said they supposed the couple were a man and wife, and they were called by the state to testify that they had seen Porter and other state's witnesses on cross-examination, was expected to begin the defense before court adjourned this afternoon.

here, The Tillotson family and Archie B. Paxton of Villa Park are leaving today for San Bernardino to attend the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Glenn and children, 1803 North Broadway, are leaving today for a short vacation at Laguna.

L. F. Harvey of the post office force, and Mrs. Harvey and children, have returned from an enjoyable vacation at Cedarpines Park.

Mrs. M. F. Conkle, mother of Mrs. F. M. Blacketter, 401 East Pine street, left yesterday via Southern Pacific for Camrose, Alberta, Canada, to visit her son, H. B. Conkle.

Announcement is made that the Woman's Missionary Society of Spurgeon Memorial church will hold its regular monthly meeting of the church parlors at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. A potluck supper will be served at 6 o'clock to members and their husbands.

8000 VETERANS DEEFY RAIN IN BIG PARADE

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 12.—The veterans of Antietam and Bull Run, their ranks fast disintegrating, marched through a cold rain today in the fifty-eighth annual encampment of the G. A. R. It was a proud, gray haired and somewhat feeble file of veterans which plodded down the glistening wet wooden blocks of Boston's streets, marching to airs which stirred the country back in the days of '61 and '65.

Some 8000 veterans joined in the parade. Thousands gathered along the streets to pay homage to the last of the veterans of the Civil war.

A touching and significant scene was added to the event, a touch which showed how rapidly the ranks of the organization are thinning. In the reviewing stands sat more than a thousand veterans who had come to participate in perhaps their last encampment—sitting in the stands because their legs were so enfeebled they could not stand the rigor of the walk but when the colors went by they never failed to rise and stand stiffly and proudly "at attention."

Many of the men in the parade were doing their last "1, 2, 3, 4," for the cause of the G. A. R. Several were forced to give up the march before it had come to its conclusion.

DEPUTY SHERIFF IS FINED FOR SPEEDING

ORANGE, Aug. 12.—Motorcycle Officer George Peterkin refused to believe that an officer of the law was any more privileged to speed than an ordinary person, and as a result the city of Orange is $15 richer. S. L. Herrick, who said he was a special deputy of Riverside county, was arrested by the local officer on Sunday for crossing an intersection at the rate of 37 1/4 miles per hour.

Herrick, according to the officer, tried to "blame" Peterkin, saying that he was an officer of the law, but a ticket was soon made out requesting the Riverside man to appear before Judge Ingle Friday morning.

Today the judge received a letter from Herrick saying that he did not believe that he was going as fast as the rate stipulated, but that he thought the law should be obeyed. Judge Ingle agreed with the offender, and remarked quietly, "Fifteen dollars."

Many other arrests were made by Peterkin over the week-end, the majority being for too much speed on intersections. The following are to appear shortly before City Recorder G. W. Ingle for that alleged offense: Samuel Newport, of Fontana; J. M. Oakey, 1897 E street, San Bernardino; M. L. Castleman, 363 Brockton avenue, Riverside; Charles Eckert, Anaheim; E. A. Long, Placentia; Roy Douglass, 352 East Pine street, Orange; Roy E. Davis, Hyattsville.

Two Orange youths were arrested for reckless driving when they drove their motorcycles around the Plaza. They are Floyd Douglass of 363 North Pine street and Ed Stanfield of Collins and Cambridge streets.

Ad Club Program Friday Announced

"The Missing Link" will be the subject of the program to be given at the meeting Friday noon at St. Ann's Inn of the Santa Ana Ad club, Wayne Goble, chairman of the committee, announced today.

According to Goble's announcement, many business houses in Santa Ana which spend large sums of money for advertising have a "missing link" which costs them money every day.

The program will be featured by short talks on how to "tie up" with newspaper advertising to bring better sales results.

SEAL BEACH JUSTICE FINES

SEAL BEACH, Aug. 12.—Motorists who speed by intersections here were shown no mercy when they appeared before Justice of the Peace G. W. Morrison this week. All of those whom the justice found guilty were assessed $15 after their arrest by City Marshal J. E. Arnold and Motorcycle Officer Jack Young. The following are those who appeared:

George Dewey Court, 221 West Almond street, Compton, $15; William Dubs, Los Angeles, $15; Robert Larachi, Los Angeles, $15; J. Taylor, Long Beach, $15; A. M. Castro, Anaheim, $15; Andrew Enslin, Los Angeles, $15; D. E. Gurley, Los Angeles, $15; P. E. Valentine, Long Beach, $15; Emil Noury, Los Angeles, was arrested but failed to appear.

PUBLIC UTILITY PROBLEM TOPIC AT ANAHEIM

ANAHEIM, Aug. 12.—A report on the public utility matter by Andrew Smiley feature the meeting tonight at the local high school auditorium of the Anaheim farm center, according to George Vandenberg, secretary.

The arrangements for the farm bureau picnic September 6 will be announced and the director's report will be heard. Present day farm problems will be discussed by W. A. Cory, assistant farm advisor. There will be an open discussion on the control of citrus aphids, according to Vandenberg. T. F. Shea is president of the Anaheim farm center.

WOMAN SEEKS GEMS BURIED BY PET DOG

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., Aug. 12.—The propensities of a white poodle dog for burying eggs, doughnuts and small articles was revealed by the publication in a newspaper here by Mrs. Ezra C. Walck, a theatrical producer, of an advertisement reading: "Lost, probably buried by dog on Chestnut street, cluster diamonds, three other rings and gold piece, wrapped in linen."

Asks Recount of Oklahoma Votes

ACCUSERS OF LEWIS WITHDRAW CHARGES

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 12.—Faced with three extra days hotel bills if they stayed to prosecute Ed "Strangler" Lewis on charges of battery brought after an altercation on the Tia Juana highway Sunday night, the strong man's four accusers today filed affidavits exonerating him.

Charles Fatherless, Daisy Haynes, Charles and Leo Haynes, who signed the warrants on which the Strangler was arrested, decided to return to Los Angeles instead of waiting for the trial, set for Thursday.

The champion wrestler will pay for repairs to Fatherless' automobile, damaged by Lewis' machine at the outset of the argument, it was said.

FORD IS SILENT ON SENATE CANDIDACY

SOUTH SUDBURY, Mass., Aug. 12.—Henry Ford, through his secretary, today refused to comment on a dispatch from Lansing, Mich., to the effect that he must order his name withdrawn from the Michigan ballots or automatically become a candidate for the United States senate from that state.

The secretary stated Ford had nothing to say other than a reiteration of his previous announcement that he was not to enter politics "on any ticket."

When asked whether such action could be properly interpreted as meaning that Ford intends to let his name remain on the ballot, the secretary replied that any one was free to interpret the situation as he saw fit.

ALLEGED KLANSMEN ACCUSED OF FRAUD

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 12.—Charged with using money invested in a "klan project" for their own personal use, nine men, eight of whom are said to be members of the Ku Klux Klan, are to stand trial on September 3, before Judge Frederickson.

A check of the organization's books, now in the possession of City Prosecutor Jack Friedlander, revealed that a large number of the "patrons" were either foreign or colored. According to authorities, however, the company was founded on "100 per cent American principles" of the Klan with the announced purpose of serving only members of the order or those eligible to membership. The defendants are all executives and directors of the Pacific Coast Home Building company, an apparently defunct homebuilding firm. They are charged with using $40,000 belonging to several hundred investors for their own welfare.

El Modena News

EL MODENA, Aug. 12.—Miss Orpha Crist returned Saturday from McArthur where she had been a month visiting. Miss Crist taught for two years at McArthur. Miss Edith Culter returned home Friday evening for the rest of the summer after attending summer school at the University of California, Southern Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Jones were in San Bernardino Monday and Tuesday attending the funeral of Mr. Jones' brother's baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Filippen spent Tuesday in Laguna visiting Miss Marguerite Cruickshank who is attending an art school there.

Mrs. Hattie Jeffers returned to Loma Linda hospital Friday. She accompanied Mrs. W. F. Crist home from the hospital, being with her a week here in El Modena. In the capacity of nurse.

The Women's Berean Sunday school class held their monthly meeting Thursday with Mrs. W. F. Crist. They spent an enjoyable afternoon sewing and in conversation. Those present were Mesdames Dickerson, Hayden, Crotes, Grammer, Carlton, Townsend, Crist and Mrs. Hattie Jeffers.

The Margaret Fell society entertained their mothers at a supper on the parsonage lawn last Thursday evening. A happy group of girls with their mothers gathered around the tables at six thirty. Following the dinner the girls entertained their mothers with a delightful piano solo and after several songs by all the program was closed with prayer by the pastor.

Those girls and mothers present to enjoy this time together were Mrs. Mary Wilsey and Lena May Wilsey, Mrs. Mary Lutz and Dorothy Lutz, Mrs. Pearl Padcock and Lynverre Padcock, Mrs. Doris Gray and Ruby and Mary Pearl Gray, Mrs. Porter and Susie Porter, Mrs. Lydia Carl and Vesta Carl, Mrs. Olive Stanfield and Eula Stanfield, Mrs. Donald Smiley and two children, Donald and Jane, Ida Michael, Thelma Lammert, Ruth Wing, and Rev. and Mrs. Ray Carter.

Ray Barnett returned home on Thursday from Oregon after a short visit before entering school. On Friday he made a trip to California, returning home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stone entertained with a dinner party Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Carter, who are soon leaving for Imperial. The house was very beautifully decorated with dahlias. A very delicious four-course dinner was enjoyed by all. The rest of the evening was spent in usual conversation and music. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Stone and daughter Nettie Jewel, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stone.

Mrs. Sylvester Marchburn and son Wendell, have been visiting Mrs. Marshburn's parents in Long Beach for a few days.

LOVE TRIANGLE SLAYING TOLD BY WIDOW

MIDDLEBURG, Pa., Aug. 12.—Spurred by a desire to obtain justice for herself, Mrs. Anna Krazer Willow, 38 years of age, mother of two children, who is in jail here with Ralph Shadle, her 17-year-old sweetheart, both charged with the murder of the woman's husband, Harvey Willow, told an amazing story. She reviewed her life with Willow, her love for Ralph and how she and the boy planned the murder.

She revealed new and highly important evidence the commonwealth hitherto lacked. This evidence lightens the burden of responsibility Ralph had thrust on her shoulders. But she insists she does not seek to escape the blame.

She loved Ralph, she loves him still, she sobbed. If she were free tomorrow she would resume the relationship with him if he would have her. She was driven into it, heart-hungry for the affection her happiness demanded.

Mate Makes Threat

Harvey had accused her the night before his death of lavishing her love on his young farm hand. When she admitted it and told him she no longer loved him Harvey pointed a shotgun at her and threatened to shoot both her and the boy if she didn't break off the affair.

The next morning, before Harvey and her lover went out to hunt rabbits, Ralph told her he was going to kill Harvey.

During the eight months they lived together after Harvey was murdered, and before their arrest, Ralph, she said, took the place of the dead father to the Willow children and did all the work about the farm. Frequently on a Sunday she and the children would go with Ralph to the unmarked grave in a little Dutch cemetery, and the boy would help her cut the grass and place flowers on the mound.

Both Attend Funeral

She said Ralph went to Willow's funeral with her and they both wept, but never after the funeral mentioned the shooting.

Mrs. Willow said she paid the boy to work the farm for her. She grew to love him more and more, until to her and the children he was indispensable.

There was a touching scene at the jail yesterday when Ralph's aged parents, with his brother Jack and his little sister Maude, saw him for the first time in many weeks. Although in the poorest circumstances they have engaged legal aid to defend the boy. They blame Mrs. Willow entirely for the youth's predicament.

OLD TRAILS HIGHWAY
LINK BEING RESURFACED

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., Aug. 12.—A twenty-three-mile stretch of the Old Trails Highway east of Flagstaff is being constructed with Federal funds. Surfacing will be of crushed stone from a quarry near Flagstaff. The concrete bridge and culvert work already has been done.

College Head's Daughter Ends Life With Rope

WEST ORANGE, N. J., Aug. 12.—Miss Mary Fulton of Rolla, Mo., daughter of Dr. C. H. Fulton, president of the Missouri State School of Mines at Rolla, committed suicide at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Albert Fulton, of West Orange, N. J. Her body was found by Mrs. Fulton hanging to a rope, tied to a ladder in the barn. The grandmother said that Miss Fulton had told her she was going for a walk. She had been in ill health and despondent. The girl came East two months ago. She was 21 years of age.

Theater Combine To Enlarge String

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 12.—Twenty-eight new theaters, most of them in Los Angeles, will be constructed in Southern California cities in the near future, it was announced today by West Coast Theaters, Inc.

The new theaters will have an average seating capacity of 2,000, according to the announcement, and will be modern in every detail.

In order to avoid downtown congestion, most of the theaters will be located in "neighborhood districts."

Ohioans Vote on State Candidates

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 12.—Ohio went to the polls today selecting candidates for state and county offices to run in the November elections.

A heavy primary vote was indicated on the strength of the large registration and ideal weather conditions.

Cudahys Lose in Race With Death

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 12.—Defeated in their race with death from Chicago, Gerald and John Cudahy were expected to reach Los Angeles today. Their mother, Mrs. John Cudahy, widow of the meat packer, died yesterday as the result of a sudden attack of pneumonia and gastritis.

The two brothers, of the Milwaukee firm of Cudahy Brothers, are to make funeral arrangements.

Tight shoes are said to aggravate attacks of neuralgia.

Divorcee Weeps As She Tells of Her Ketchup Man

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Slender, with reddish hair, and attired in white silk, she wept into a lace handkerchief in court.

She had given her heart and soul and all her love to a ketchup man, and he had scorned her.

Scorned here, she charged, after he promised to pay her bills for life.

There was a new note struck when attorneys revealed that Jefferson Livingstone, 62 years old, retired millionaire ketchup manufacturer, likes tresses the color of the ripening tomato, not the ripened tomato, rather the tomato that turns from green to delicate pink before it grows red.

Mrs. Muriel Buell is a divorcee, formerly of California, now living at Mamaroneck, Livingstone has a suite at the Waldorf.

Back in 1923, Mrs. Buell charges, Livingstone signed an agreement to give her $1750 per month if she would abandon a breach of promise suit against him, which she says she did.

Livingstone, through Attorneys Samuel Untermyer and Robert Johnstone, denied the promise and there was hurled forth in the crowded courtroom the word "mistress," which caused the beautiful divorcee to bend her head, blush and weep.

Frederick E. Klein, attorney for Mrs. Buell, demanded a bill of particulars from the ketchup man. Whereupon Johnstone demanded that Mrs. Buell submit to an examination before trial and also reveal the alleged $1750 per month agreement.

Take Woman, Man In Apartment Raid

Taken in her apartment with Harold Berger, Anaheim rancher, at 9 a. m. yesterday, Miss Vera Seal, and also Berger, was to appear in Justice Charles Kuebel's court at Anaheim on charges they were possessing liquor illicitly when officers raided the Colonial apartments, fashionable residence quarters of that city.

Word received here today was to the effect "neighbors" sent for the officers.

MOORING MAST OF BIG DIRIGIBLE BEING TESTED

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 12.—Naval officials were today preparing to test further the mobile anchorage of the navy dirigible, Shenandoah, moved to the special mooring mast of the U. S. S. Patoka last night in Narragansett bay.

ASK $1,000,000 IN SECRET DIPLOMACY

BERLIN, Aug. 12.—Four million goldmarks are provided for "secret expenditure" in the budget of the German foreign office out of a total budget of 37,000,000 marks. For the four million mark fund, no account need be given to the auditor.

The foreign office needs a subsidy of 11,000,000 marks from the state in order to balance its budget. The remainder, 26,000,000 marks, it is estimated, will be obtained from the income of the embassies and consulates abroad.

Germany has at present nine embassies, according to the budget. Now in this year's budget is the embassy at Constantinople.

Ossining Charges Prison Goods Are Being Boycotted

OSSINING, N. Y., Aug. 12.—Ossining came to the fore with the charge that nineteen cities had boycotted prison-made goods with the threat to take action against the offenders. State laws require cities, towns and villages to patronize the prison factories in certain lines.

Yonkers, Long Beach and Port Jervis are included in the list. As a preliminary in the fight, State Controller Fleming will be asked to have his auditors hold up all accounts contracted by the offenders.

The prison has had to close its knitting factory because of the lack of orders.

A. A. A. Will Have Headquarters for West in Bay City

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 12.—Further recognition of the important place the Pacific coast has won in the world of organized motordom came with the announcement that the American Automobile association, the nation-wide representative of the organized motorists of America, would shortly establish a western headquarters in San Francisco.

The new western headquarters of the A. A. A. will be located at the general offices of the California State Automobile association on Van Ness avenue in San Francisco. It will provide the national body with a more direct contact with its various affiliated automobile clubs in the west, the announcement stated.

How Brown Lost Out

When Brown moved his factory to another city he discovered that he would have to borrow money to carry on the business.

And there was the rub. For Brown was rather a seedy looking individual. The banks he visited took him for a poor risk. He didn't appear prosperous, didn't even look keen. They wouldn't loan him the money, and they couldn't tell him their reasons for declining.

Yet these same banks had loaned money to men of far less ability—to men who knew the value of being well dressed.

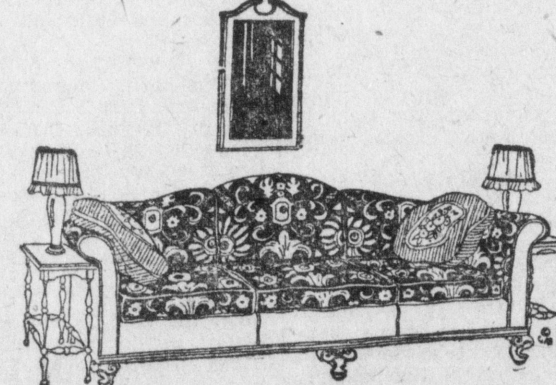

There's many a man who fails to get all he should from business and life simply because he neglects his personal appearance. First impressions are important impressions.

Perhaps you'll never need to borrow money from a bank. But it always will pay you to be well dressed.

Living Room Furniture at Chandler's NEW!

You are free to wander through our extensive stocks; to buy, if you like; to look around and get ideas for home furnishings, if you are not prepared to choose. We warmly invite you to avail yourself of this special showing while the choice is at its greatest.

Furniture, too, has its fashions, and never has it been as smart as revealed in Chandler's present display. You make your selections here, too, with the knowledge that the styles are backed by years of enduring beauty. Quality first!

New Designs, Colors In Overstuffed . . .

Every new overstuffed piece, which was, by the way, received only this week, is a compliment to Chandler's store.

But particularly do we point with pride to the new furniture from Karpén. Dignified, yet always comfortable and cheerful designs to invite family companionship.

Selection of complete suites or single pieces, may be made as you wish. This last form of selection—by the gradual replacement plan—is a convenient and sensible way to a more livable living room.

Desks and Tables . . . and More Desks

There are desks and desks in this exhibit—library desks, ladies' desks, Gov. Winthrop desks, spinet desks.

In addition you will find library tables of every type and finish together with davenport tables, end tables, etc.

To really enjoy a living room, its furniture must be in good taste, its small touches individual. And you will enjoy making your selections here.

Don't let the week slip by. Come.

Friends Shower Latest Fiancee at Dainty Luncheon

Miss Rose Clausen was hostess at a delightful afternoon luncheon recently at her home at 1509 N. Main, honoring Miss Zetta Nunn and announcing her betrothal to Mr. Marvin Hagey of Los Angeles. An appetizing two course collation was served. Ribbons streamers, that had been fastened near the plate of each guest, upon being drawn from the dainty centerpiece, revealed tiny cards bearing the names of the honoree and Mr. Marvin Hagey. The last course was a pleasant surprise to Miss Nunn, when numerous packages were set before her, which proved to be lovely and useful gifts for her future home. The afternoon was whiled away with fancy work and plans for the future. Those enjoying Miss Clausen's hospitality, included Miss Zetta Nunn, Mrs. J. Nunn, Margaret Nunn, Mesdames Mercer, Jane Holmes and the Misses Ora Overton and Helene Kubitz. The nuptials will be a happy event of early fall.

Laguna Card Party Benefit Soon

The committee in charge of the card party to be given at the Laguna Beach Community Club the afternoon and evening of August 19, have reported that Laguna Beach artists have responded beautifully to the call for donations of these pictures. Several of these pictures will be exhibited in Santa Ana business houses the coming week. The picture donated by P. W. Cuprien will be exhibited at Rankin's Dry Goods store here and the picture donated by William Griffith will be on exhibit at Bishop's jewelry store. Other pictures will be shown in local business houses in Laguna. The artists who have donated pictures are Jack Smith, Joseph Kleifsch, Mabelle Lord Frost, F. W. Cuprien, William Griffith, R. Clarkson, Colman, Ida Randall Bolles, Karl Yens, William Swift, Daniell, Grace Volmer, Ann Robinson and Catherine Strade. The social committee of the Community club stated that it had received wonderful co-operation from all business people and others whom they have asked to assist in making this one of the most brilliant social functions of the year. The committee has also assured those who do not wish to play cards for prizes that they have a chance to win one of the pictures given as door prizes. Everybody will be made welcome by a number of Club members who will act as hostesses for the evening.

Women Organize Group For Social Time

A new social club was formed last week by eight women who met in the afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. C. Williams, 1719 Orange avenue, for a cup of tea. Selecting the Spanish word, Innonunada, (which cannot have a secret meaning since it plainly reads "Nameless"), the little organization for the promotion of close friendship was formally christened by its members. The club will meet the first and fourth Fridays of the month at the homes of the members. An informal program will be arranged for the entertainment of the guests, and the remainder of the afternoon will be devoted to needle work. Mrs. W. S. Chandler will act as initial hostess to the newly named organization. It was decided that the membership should be limited to twelve to insure intimate friendship and understanding. Among those included were Mesdames W. S. Chandler, James Clark, W. J. Leonard, Harvey Riggie, M. C. Williams, George Williamson, C. P. Wells and J. H. Tompkins.

Traveler to Lecture on Religions of East

Manly P. Hall, author, lecturer and world traveler, will speak at the Community Club of "Our Villages" tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, on "Thirty-eight Thousand Miles of Impressions." The lecture will be illustrated with a rare collection of pictures taken by Mr. Hall which have been acclaimed to be some of the finest ever shown to the public. The speaker was in India at the time of the Ghandi's release and viewed the ruins of Yokohama just after the earthquake last September. Mr. Hall is a student not only of art and literature, but of the characters and religious faiths of the Far East as well and his lecture will include many curious side lights on what the other half of the world believes. The speaker will start with Japan, and lead his hearers through this beautiful country to Korea and thence to China, visiting the great wall and the famous Lama Temple. From China he will visit Burma, and Java, and across India to Egypt and the Holy Land. In his travels, Mr. Hall has always sought to actually take on the atmosphere of the lands he has visited, and with his camera bring the best of the East away with him. It is expected that a large audience will gather at Laguna to hear him.

Pretty Home Wedding Celebrated at Evening Hour

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wiley of Silver Acres was the scene of a very pretty home wedding on Monday evening when their daughter, Miss Jessie Wiley, became the bride of John Pemberton of Wilmington. The happy couple plighted their vows at 6 o'clock before members of the immediate family and a few invited guests. The ring ceremony was used, with the Rev. William L. Dixon officiating. The young bride made a very pretty picture in her white lace gown over pale green and corsage of pink rosebuds. Her attendant, Miss Pauline Black, a former schoolmate, wore a frock of gray georgette over rose and carried sweet peas. The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of flowers and made a lovely setting for the nuptial ceremony. Charles Patterson of Bolsa acted as best man. Following the ceremony a delicious wedding supper prepared by the mother of the bride awaited the guests. After the supper a shower of rice and good wishes were bestowed upon the newly wedded couple as they left the house. Departing by automobile, the bridal pair left for San Diego where they will spend their honeymoon, returning by way of Long Beach where they expect to make their future home. Among those included at the wedding supper were Mr. and Mrs. Black and daughters, Pearl and Pauline, Charles T. Patterson and Hattie Patterson, Miss Anna Hester, Will Simmons and Worne Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wiley and James Wiley, Miss Jessie Wiley, and John Pemberton.

Bountiful 'Spread' to Celebrate Birthday

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodchild, 464 West Eighth street, was the scene of a delightful dinner party Sunday when Mr. Goodchild celebrated his birthday anniversary. Friends and relatives had gathered from far and near for the pleasant event. Mr. and Mrs. Black and daughters, Pearl and Pauline, Charles T. Patterson and Hattie Patterson, Miss Anna Hester, Will Simmons and Worne Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wiley and James Wiley, Miss Jessie Wiley, and John Pemberton.

Parisienne Selects Unusual Negligee

This beautiful negligee is what Paris has dictated for fall. It is of sea-green satin lined in blue with gray fox trimming as fine as that on any opera cloak. The fur anklets are a chic feature designed to protect midday from possibly annoying draughts. Judging from the little model's hairdress, the straight bob has won its place in Europe too.

Theatricals at Bridge Tea Are Surprise

A very pleasant bridge tea was suddenly converted into the most theatrical of mock weddings when the betrothal of Miss Mildred Francis and Waldo Wherly was announced recently at the home of Mrs. Donald Hilliard, 1014 W. Myrtle street. The guests played a delightful series of games and the high score was awarded to Mrs. Jack Remberg, the score for second high to Mrs. Don Andrews, and the consolation to Miss Anita Cox. A delightful tea menu was served on the colorful bridge tables which were set in alternate lavender and yellow, and candles tied with tulle of harmonizing colors. When the guests opened diminutive envelopes to which were attached two picture shoes and a bag of rice to find that the marriage of Miss Francis and Mr. Wherly would take place August 27 the mock service was inspired. This delightful funmaker was impressively carried out to the tune of the March of the Wooden Soldiers. Miss Francis is a graduate of Santa Ana High school and attended the University of Redlands. Mr. Wherly is attending Tulane university in New Orleans. Those included were Miss Mildred Francis of Orange, Mesdames F. L. Andrews Jr., H. W. Butterman and F. W. Hobbs of Orange, Don Andrews, Don Jerome, Mickey and the Misses Hazel Hamilton of San Pedro, Mary Andrews, Anna Grace McElree, Mariana Baird, Allene Shipp, Glenn Jean Hill, Isabel Wylie, Grace Dickey, Bertha Selway, Holly Lash, Ruth Violet, Anita Cox, Nellie Larson, Grace Smiley, Lillian Pumphrey, and Carolyn Finley.

Aim of Woman's Club Praised at Luncheon Yesterday

An unusually interesting address was that heard yesterday by the members of the Business and Professional Woman's club at their regular Monday luncheon at St. Ann's Inn. The Rev. J. H. Stevenson of the Presbyterian church of San Jose and Mrs. Stevenson, formerly of Santa Ana, were the principal guests of the noon hour. The speaker was presented by Miss Mabel McFadden, president of the organization. On opening his pleasantly informal talk, the Rev. Stevenson quoted "Friendship," a poem from James Whitcomb Riley. This verse embodied the theme of his message. The Rev. Stevenson is a firm believer in the efficacy of club organization to promote friendship. He cited his own recent experience in San Jose where he made many new friends through the various clubs and fraternal organizations of that city. "Under ordinary circumstances that is, without any club life, we should probably have met the people of San Jose only after four or five years," he said. "If the Kaiser, the King of the Belgians, George of England, and the president of France had knocked off several months each year to go on a fishing trip to the United States, there would have been no world war," he declared. Citing the friendly attention and solicitude which he received in a German home during his services with the 33rd division in Europe, Mr. Stevenson again lauded the capacity of kindness for winning love.

Praising the aim of the Business and Professional Woman's association, he stated that such organizations alone stimulate co-operation and prevent wars. A card from Miss Olive Lopez, a member of the organization who is traveling in New York state, and an application to the loan fund were read by Miss McFadden. The dining room was delightfully decorated yesterday with a profusion of baby dahlias.

Girl Wins Court Fight for $50,000 Shop of Father's

SEATTLE, Aug. 12.—Ethel D. O'Brien, beautiful young Chicago girl, who moved here to gain control and management of her late father's $50,000 wholesale clothing business, won her fight to be appointed administratrix of her father's estate in Superior Judge Boyd T. Tilton's court yesterday. Through her attorney, Stanley J. Padden, Miss O'Brien succeeded in establishing her residence here and her ability to serve as the probate executive of the valuable property in the face of opposition from the Marine National Bank and the Security Title and Trust company who also sought appointment as administrator of the estate. The Marine National bank was appointed administrator as a creditor of the half of the estate which belonged to the wife of John Lawrence O'Brien, the late clothing manufacturer. O'Brien and his second wife died within a week's time last month. Miss O'Brien and her brother in Chicago are the only heirs.

Women Lawyers Advised to Drop Mannish Styles

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12.—The fifteenth annual convention of the Women Lawyers' association met at the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Ellen Spencer Mussey told the delegates that "the flat-heeled, sailor-hatted, high-collared woman lawyer is out of date." She continued: "Feminism is now an asset to women attorneys. It is the girl with real womanly qualities who now appeals to the judges and juries. She should be as attractive as possible, and her social instincts are a positive asset." Mrs. Emelle M. Belloway, of New York, president of the Portias, an organization of women lawyers, also spoke.

Fortune in Oil Snatched From Hand by Death

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 12.—Death snatched a fortune from the hands of Byron G. Ogburn, 35 years of age, president of the Shasta Oil company of Texas, who died here after falling three stories down the elevator shaft of the Hotel Flower. It was revealed by relatives of the dead man. Two weeks ago Ogburn received word from his associates at Laredo, Tex., that seven of his oil wells had "come in" and were producing large quantities of oil, according to his sister-in-law, Mrs. Carl Ogburn, and he planned to leave for the South within a week. Although the exact value of the "strike" is not known by relatives, they said Ogburn expected to reap thousands of dollars when he learned of the success of his venture.

AUTOS SWELL ARMY OF WHITE HOUSE CALLERS
 WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—General use of the automobile has made a marked increase in the number of callers at the White House within the last two years. From 300 to 1000 a day call in the present dull season.

Popular Young Couple Surprise Friends With Quiet Nuptials

A pleasant surprise to the many friends of Miss Marian Elizabeth Pritchard, was the announcement of the quiet ceremony on Saturday that made her the bride of George Martin Glover of Pasadena. Following the announcement of their engagement in April of this year the wedding was planned for the fall, but desiring to escape the formality of a large wedding the young couple slipped away yesterday to the home of the Rev. Frank T. Porter. There the quiet ceremony was read just before high noon. Miss Pritchard was very charming in a mauve going-away suit and a little mauve silk cloche. Due to the simplicity of the wedding she was unattended. George Martin Glover is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Glover of Pasadena and a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Brisedine of Santa Ana. He is connected with the engineering department of the Santa Fe railroad company at San Bernardino. Miss Pritchard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Pritchard of Tustin. Following the two years when she attended Grafton hall, a woman's college in the East, she was a student at Santa Ana high school. The young couple are on a wedding trip to Colorado and after September 15, will make their home at 803 Third street, San Bernardino.

Delta Alpha Class

Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Steward very delightfully entertained the Delta Alpha class of the First M. E. church, yesterday evening at their home at 1709 Spurgeon street. After an interesting business session, jolly games were played. A delightful program consisting of a piano solo by Miss Thelma Glascock, a reading by Miss Etta Hale, a piano solo by Miss Minnie Wild, a vocal solo by Miss Kathleen Steward, and a vocal duet by Thelma Glascock and Rachel Steward was enjoyed; and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Steward, Misses Alice Davidson, Olive and Bertha Briney, Edna Knoll, Ida Reed, Clara Barnes, Mattie Smith, Etta Hale, Nellie O'Brien, Minnie Wild, Kathleen and Rachel Steward, Pearl Kimball, Irma De Barr, Thelma Glascock, Beulah Stone, Gertrude Richardson, and Mesdames Perkins, Tyner and Alexander.

Daughters of Veterans

The Daughters of Veterans' picnic in Birch park was a great success yesterday when some 75 women, including guests from the Long Beach and Fullerton tents, celebrated the anniversary of the founding of the local chapter. A pot-luck dinner was served at 12:30 and a special feature of the meal was a huge birthday cake with thirteen candles to mark the Santa Ana tent's anniversary. Stunts were presented by the representatives of different native states of the union, and an enjoyable afternoon was spent under the trees. The next meeting of the organization will be held August 19.

Woman's Relief Corps

The members of the Woman's Relief Corps are busy this week with their plans for the big benefit sale to be held on Friday of this week. The former home of the Gas company, Fifth and Sycamore streets, has been rented for the day, and there patrons will find a delightful array of handmade women's children's and infants' clothing. Fancy work and a beautiful quilt top also will be sold during the day. The proceeds from the sale will go to the undernourished children's mountain camp to which the Corps has been donating.

Getting Skinnier Every Day

Something Must Be Done
and Done Darn Quick,
Too

Tens of thousands of thin, run-down men—yes, and women too—are getting discouraged—are giving up all hope of ever being able to take on flesh and look healthy and strong. All such people can stop worrying and start to smile right now for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets, which any druggist will tell you all about, is putting flesh on hosts of skinny folks every day. One woman tired, weak and discouraged put on 15 pounds in five weeks and feels fine. We all know that Cod Liver Oil is full of flesh producing vitamins, but many people can't take it because of its horrible smell and fishy taste, and because it often upsets the stomach. McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets are as easy to take as candy, and if any thin person doesn't gain at least 5 pounds in 30 days your druggist will give you your money back—and only 40 cents a box. Ask White Cross Drug Co., C. S. Kelley Drug Co., Ma-teer's, or any live pharmacist anywhere. "Get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablet." adv

'BAD MEN' GIVE TO FUND FOR CATHEDRAL

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—"Bad men" met a bishop and instead of getting away with his money they let him get away with a little of theirs. It was an unusual experience for "The Millionaire Kid" and "Dan the Scratcher" and "Hottel Bill" and all the rest of them as it was for Bishop William T. Manning and it was impossible to tell whether the ex-crooks took more pride in giving $100 for the building of the cathedral of St. John the Divine than the bishop found in accepting it.

It took place at Luchow's restaurant in East Fourteenth street, where the Marshall Stillman movement had the bishop as its guest. Men who had felt the "cat" in Wadsworth prison or who had dragged around in the hall and chain at Trenton in the days when the hall and chain was there, or who had crouched in the solitary darkness of the cells at Charlestown, Mass., were present and sat and ate and talked, not only with a bishop but with a former police commissioner and with judges who had sentenced some of them to prison.

They told of their lives and of how they were not only going straight now but, what was more important, how they were getting others to go straight, too. And then they presented the gift which they had collected in dimes from the "underworld" and heard Bishop Manning say that of all the money donated for the cathedral none was more significant than this and none more sacred.

It was a little embarrassing for "The Millionaire Kid" to stand up in such company and make an after dinner speech, even though he had just tasted of mock turtle soup and roast chicken and ice cream and black coffee. To be sure, "The Millionaire Kid" was dressed in the way that won his name for him, but for all that, formal phrase making came a little difficult at first and after trying it he drifted into the vernacular and put his message over, with more force because of it.

"When a guy gets out of the jug," remarked the Kid, when he fell into his own stride, "society don't give him a tumble. They think he ought to be punished all his life. Why, there was a guy come out of the jug only four days ago with $10 in his pocket. Nobody gives him a tumble but he'd been through college and gone to medical school. I ask him what he wants to do and he says he wants to study bugs—that's nuts—and I've just got him a job at Central Islip. That's because I'm in the Marshall Stillman movement."

Other "stick-up" men and forgers told of how they were now members of the advisory council of the movement and of how their one aim now was to go straight and to get others to go straight with them. But society would have to help, they said.

RAT PUTS PHONE LINE OUT OF ORDER

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—After several days of searching and testing to find the cause of intermittent trouble that kept putting a Yonkers telephone line out of commission, Emmet Devlin, an electrician, discovered that a rat interfered with it by playing with the wires. It took experts three weeks to discover the rat was "wire-tapping."

It is the first difficulty of the kind encountered by the New York Telephone company. The telephone instrument is located over a mile from the Yonkers office. Every now and then it would go out of order and signal "central." The trouble always occurred after dark and the telephone would often be working satisfactorily again during the daylight hours.

Devlin found the insulation had been chewed off the wires. The rat, in hitting the wires, sometimes put the phone out of order and would restore it a moment later by again touching the wire.

Sweden Seeking To Reduce Drift Of Her Subjects

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 12.—It will be harder to become a citizen of Sweden, and easier to remain one after the beginning of next year, according to a new law which has just been passed.

The new citizenship regulation requires five years' residence, instead of three, for the naturalization of immigrants. According to the old law, a Swedish woman lost her citizenship upon marriage to a man who was not a Swedish citizen. But under the new law such a married woman retains her national allegiance to Sweden until she becomes naturalized under the laws of some other country.

Under the old law Swedes residing abroad for a period of ten years automatically lost their citizenship, even though they had not been naturalized in the country of residence. But under the new law a Swedish citizen by birth who has been domiciled in Sweden wherever he resides unless he should become naturalized in some other country. Persons whose Swedish citizenship has lapsed under the old law may have it renewed so as to come within the scope of the new law by a simple written application to any Swedish consulate or legation.

MAN IN BURGLARY HELD TO ANSWER

Roy Brown, who with his sweetheart, Miss Colleen Wood, was arrested and lodged in the county jail here Friday night, today waived his preliminary hearing when arraigned before Justice Charles Kuchel at Anaheim on a charge of burglary and was bound over to the superior court under bonds of $1000. He was returned to the county jail.

Brown waived his preliminary hearing, it is said, to expedite matters in getting his case before the superior court, it is said, he will ask for probation.

Brown and Miss Wood were arrested at Long Beach following a confession on the part of E. O. Moon, who failed to win probation in Judge West's court Thursday. Brown is said to have confessed that he and Moon had entered one Villa Park home and another a short distance east of Anaheim. Their loot is said to have amounted to several hundreds of dollars' worth of clothing and jewelry and a small amount of cash.

American Singer Wins Argentine Critic's Approval

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 12.—A real American woman, from no lesser place than Newark, N. J., herself has appeared before the most capacious musical audience in the world and been found not wanting.

Miss Louise Hayes, who says that she will not adopt an Italian name for singing, even if she never gets a contract with American operatic producers, appeared in the Colon theater here as Margherita in Bolto's "Mefistofele" and carried the audience with her from the start.

"I was scared stiff, and I never dared to look at the audience once," she said. In making her debut at the Colon, which is famous for the quality of its performances and the coldness of its audiences towards those who do not deliver art with a big "A," Miss Hayes met with all sorts of difficulties. One of the afternoon newspapers, which is no more used to American grand opera stars than are the audiences at the Metropolitan, wondered before the performance if she would chew gum on the stage.

After her success, this same paper gravely informed its readers that she not only did not chew gum while singing, but quite unexpectedly could sing with the best of them.

Expere Burglar Issues 'Don'ts' for City Housewives

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Housewives, attention!

Here is advice on burglaries given by young Morris Kramer, arrested in Atlantic City for breaking into 47 different homes and several hotels. In three weeks he got valuables worth $60,000. He says:

"Don't hide your money between clothes or under the paper in the bureau drawers. Every burglar looks there first."

"Don't put the house key under the front door mat, the flower box or the outer hall rug."

"Don't leave signs on the door saying how long you will be away and when you will come back."

"Real up-to-date burglars seldom carry revolvers. They get one in trouble."

600 AWAIT DAVIS' HAIR BOBBING EDICT

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Out in Illinois 500 little girls and 100 young women are waiting for James J. Davis, secretary of labor, to make a very weighty decision. The decision has to do with the labor of one man, a barber.

Secretary Davis, because he is director general of the Loyal Order of Moose, will make a trip to Mooseheart, the orphanage school 35 miles from Chicago, where nearly 2000 children and several hundred wives of members of the order find shelter and education.

There he will tell them whether or not 600 eligible small girls and mothers can have their hair bobbed. They all want short tresses and only Secretary Davis' instructions can make them happy.

The secretary, in his official reply to the thirty-sixth annual convention of the supreme lodge of the world, Loyal Order of Moose, which opened here recently, told his visiting brothers from all over the country and several foreign nations, about the decision.

"Although money is not to be considered when the welfare and happiness of little children are concerned, still in the case of bobbing the Mooseheart girls' hair it does demand some attention," he said.

"I have figured that it will cost just $2000 to carry out the bobbing program there, or about $2 a head. The services of the school barber will have to be employed and another chair must be installed in the barber chair—a feminine chair."

With Actors, on the Screen

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS
WALKER—"Robinson Crusoe" with Jackie Coogan.
YOST—"Daughters of Pleasure," co-starring Monte Blue and Marie Prevost.
WEST END—"Broadway After Dark," featuring an all-star cast.

BROADWAY'S SOUL ON SILVER SCREEN

Broadway of the great white lights, Broadway of the iron soul that voraciously swallows up its millions of adventurous souls, as the theme of one of the finest pictures it was ever our good fortune to witness. The picture is "Broadway After Dark" and is showing at the West End Theater.

Everything combines to make it a wonderful picture, one of the greatest, in fact. We say this confidently, knowing that the current year has been rich in pictures that deserve the name of great. First, it is a screen adaptation of Owen Davis' famous play of the same name, and the reputation of Owen

Davis as a dramatist needs no elaboration. Second, it is a Warner Brothers' Classic of the Screen, which means distinction and good entertainment. Third, it was directed by Monta Bell. And last, there is the exceptional cast of stellar players composed of Adolphe Menjou, Anna Q. Nilsson, Willard Louis, Norma Shearer, Carmel Myers, Edward Burns, and others.

All who see it will agree that it is an honest attempt to reveal via the screen the soul of the world's greatest city, to show that beneath the outward glare and glamour of the Great White Way human hearts and impulses are the same as on "Main Street."

MONTE BLUE IS CAST AS SOCIETY IDLER

With memories of Monte Blue's performance in "The Marriage Circle" still fresh in the minds of film fans, the announcement comes that this popular star is to make his next appearance on the screen

Jackie Coogan, who plays the leading role in Robinson Crusoe, the attraction at Walker's theater. Little Jackie is said to be ideally cast in this film.

as a society idler in "Daughters of Pleasure," a Principal Pictures offering in which he shares stellar honors with Marie Prevost at the Yost theater.

Some of the most notable successes recently scored by Mr. Blue have associated him in the same cast with Marie Prevost, and the announcement that he will be seen with the former bathing girl who has made her way to stardom in dramatic films, will be good news to many an ardent follower of the cinema.

In "Daughters of Pleasure" Mr.

Blue will be seen as a wealthy bachelor—of late he has been cast as a married man so much that this in itself will be a novelty—a man who is concerned with but two thoughts the first being "where is the next party," and the second, "what can we do to make it really lively."

"LITTLE ROBINSON CRUSOE" AT WALKER THEATER

What has turned out to be Jackie Coogan's most entertaining picture is the attraction at Walker's theater for two more days. Its title is "Little Robinson Crusoe," written especially for the little star by Willard Mack, who has let his imagination run rampant in working out a plausible and suitable story for Jackie.

The story has to do with Jackie, who plays Mickey Hogan, orphaned son of a San Francisco police hero. He sets out from San Francisco on a tramp schooner bound for Australia, to visit his aunt. When they reach the tropics, however, a typhoon wrecks and sinks the ship taking down all on board with the exception of Mickey, and a black cat, who drifts to shore on an improvised raft and strike the shores of a tropical isle.

Then come cannibals, and Satan in all his demonic glory after he beholds the doings of Little Robinson on the tropical man-eating island, will hide his fact in shame. For Jackie starts the ball rolling and keeps everyone busier than a one-legged pup with a pedigreed herd of fleas parking on him.

Imagine, embraced in the setting of one picture—San Francisco's police force, the U. S. Marines, shipwrecks, cannibals, monkeys, black cats, and you may expect most anything—especially when such a mischievous son of Erin, as Mickey Hogan is let loose on the situation.

FOES IN FIGHT FOR CONGRESS DUE TO TALK HERE TODAY

Swing Is Programmed at Birch Park Before and After Band Concert

ARRANGEMENTS TOLD

Sample to Be Introduced On City Hall Steps In Public Address

The two candidates for the Republican nomination for congressman from the 11th congressional district are to speak in Santa Ana tonight.

Congressman Phil D. Swing will speak at Birch park at 6:45 o'clock, and will give way at 7:30 o'clock to the Santa Ana municipal band, which will give its weekly concert at Birch park. Following the concert the congressman will complete his address. Swing will be introduced by Attorney W. F. Menton, who is chairman of the Republican county central committee.

Tonight, speaking at Birch park with Swing, will be two Imperial county men. They are Q. C. Webster, president of the Imperial County Farm bureau, and Capt. Elmer Heald, commander of the Imperial valley inter-post council of the American Legion.

The Swing addresses will be given both before and after the concert.

At 7:30 o'clock from the Santa city hall steps, Edward F. Sample of San Diego will deliver his address. He will be introduced by Attorney James L. Allen. D. Jessurun of Anaheim, who arranged Sample's campaign tour of the county, stated that some musical numbers would be used in opening the Sample meeting.

Sample Opens Tour Yesterday Sample spoke at a number of places in the north end of the county, closing his day with an address at Fullerton last night. Tomorrow he is to speak at Laguna Beach at 10 a. m., Tustin, 11:30 a. m., Olive at 5 p. m. and Orange at 7:30 p. m.

Swing is scheduled to meet with his campaign committee this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the office of Attorney L. A. West, president

FORMER S. A. PRIEST IS DEAD AT OXNARD

The Rev. Father Peter Carrasco, for seven years assistant pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church here and the last of the pioneer priests sent to California from Spain fifty years ago, was dead today at Oxnard, at the age of 77 years.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow forenoon at Santa Clara Catholic church here, it became known here today. Death occurred at the Oxnard hospital Sunday.

The Rev. Father Carrasco came to Santa Ana from Mexico nine years ago and two years ago resumed the pastorate of the Catholic churches at Visalia, Bakersfield and other communities in that district which he founded fifty years ago, according to the Rev. Father Henry Emmelen, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church here.

Prior to his appointment as assistant pastor here the father had been in Mexico for twenty years. Unable to speak the English language, his work here mostly was among the Mexicans.

SCHOOL BOARD TO RECEIVE PETITION

A petition asking the Santa Ana board of education to engage a full-time architect to have complete charge of all school buildings in the city, and to have charge of the buying of school supplies, was to be presented at the meeting of the board, to be held at 4:30 p. m. today.

The petition, which was said to be signed by approximately 200 Santa Ana citizens, many being architects and builders, has been in the hands of Alex. Brownridge, president of the board.

In announcing the meeting, which is the first in several weeks, Secretary F. L. Andrews stated today that numerous bills would be approved, and routine business transacted.

Oil Fields S. A. Men Interested In Are Promising

The Coal creek district in the San Juan basin, New Mexico, is one of the most promising wildcat oil fields in the Southwest, according to Charles Wilson, Santa Ana, who today had returned from a tour of inspection to the new prospective oil fields in the vicinity of Farmington, N. M.

Wilson is one of a group of Santa Ana and Orange county men who have lease rights to 5200 acres near Farmington. The acreage has been validated by drilling required under the contracts.

Most of drilling in the Coal Creek district now is merely for validating purposes according to Wilson. One company, with six miles of the holdings of the local syndicate, has installed a standard rig, Wilson said, and is preparing to test out that portion of the oil district.

COUNTY PAVING PROGRAM IS CONTINUED

Bids on South Main Street Project Likely to Cost $45,000 Due Today

With bids being opened today on one construction contract, bids on another scheduled to be opened a week from today, and a hearing set for September 2 on a proposal for a third new highway project, the county's road improvement program continued active.

Among the most important of the new projects, from a Santa Ana standpoint, was the proposal to pave South Main street, full width, from the city limits to Delhi road. A concrete paving, eight inches thick, is provided by the plans, at a cost estimated at $45,000, of which the county would supply $27,500 from its automobile license funds.

The hearing on this matter is set for September 2 before the board of supervisors.

Brea Connection. The supervisors were scheduled to open bids today on the contract for graveling the west end of Garden Grove boulevard, extending from Huntington Beach boulevard to Los Alamitos boulevard, as a base for future paving.

Next Tuesday, August 19, is the date set for opening bids on the contract for paving Cedar street, west from the city limits of Brea to connect with the state highway at a point between Fullerton and La Habra. Asphalt-concrete paving is specified, according to J. L. McBride, superintendent of county highways.

Completion of the new paving on West Chapman avenue, from the county hospital to Euclid avenue, near Garden Grove, was announced today by McBride. Work is now being carried forward on gravel shoulders, but the route is now open for travel.

Bridge Work Progresses. Good progress was reported by McBride on the two large bridge construction jobs now under way. Ledbetter and Company, he said, expected to complete the bridge on the new coast highway, across Anaheim bay, by the middle of this month. The bridge will not, however, be opened for traffic at that time, as the fill approaches to the bridge are not yet finished.

Work on the bridge across the Santa Ana river, on the same highway, is also progressing rapidly, in charge of the McKay Engineering company. The bridge, which is located about a mile west of Bitter Point, between Huntington Beach and Newport Beach, will be ready, McBride said, by the time the highway itself is finished.

VACATION OVER AS SCHOOL TO OPEN MONDAY

Four Institutions Within County Arrange Walnut Work Schedule

School bells will toll the knell of parting vacation days for pupils of at least four Orange county institutions bright and early Monday morning, according to plans that were announced today at the offices of R. P. Mitchell, county school superintendent.

Vacation will be cut short to these youths and girls, Mitchell explained, for the reason that children who are engaged each year in the harvest of walnuts will not be permitted to neglect their schooling.

Consequently, schools at Anaheim, El Modena, San Juan Capistrano and at La Habra will swing open their doors Monday, to approximately 600 school children who expect to aid in the harvesting of the 1924 walnut crop in the county in September.

Must Present Cards. In order to be able to do this, each child will be required to present, on demand, a card showing that he relinquished his claims to holidays during the latter part of August and the first of September in order to remain away from the schools during the latter part of September and the forward of October, when the nuts will be gathered.

Meetings of walnut growers were held during the early part of the year, the superintendent stated, and school questions were discussed. The subsequent approval of a plan for the earlier opening of some schools followed.

It was decided at that time it would be more feasible for children to attend schools now than to hold district schools in the groves at the time of harvesting. The latter plan, it was stated, possibly would be adopted in a number of sections in the county, to take care of the itinerant workers from adjoining counties.

Truant Officer Has Job. W. C. Roberts, county truant officer, will have a busy time during the harvesting season, it was intimated, when it was explained that his job would be to check up on children and to see that no grower or packer employed children who could not produce cards showing that the required number of days in school had been spent with their studies.

Mitchell stated that the foregoing schools were the only ones he knew of at this time that would open Monday. The decision to open the schools earlier than September is left in the hands of the district school boards, he said, and not with the county school superintendent.

Mitchell added that county schools were scheduled to open for the winter semester September 15, and that city school officials had settled upon this date.

Five Day Term In Jail Handed Out to Speeder

Making good his threat to penalize automobile speeders more severely unless more respect is shown the law, City Recorder W. F. Heathman today dealt out five-day sentences to the usual $15 fine for what he termed "speed maniacs."

Nasario Cruz, who was found guilty of motoring 45 miles an hour within the city limits, was given a five-day term in jail. W. M. West of Huntington Beach, who stepped up to 39 per on Edinger street, was fined $20.

Other traffic law violators who were fined included E. L. Marksburg, $5 for parking overtime in the two-hour zone; C. C. Swab of Los Angeles, $5 for turning his car around in the middle of a downtown block; and V. Genden, Ned Cornelius and F. G. Swan of Huntington Beach, $2 each for parking in the restricted district.

Fisherman Lands 800 Pound Shark

CAPE MAY, N. J., Aug. 12.—Captain Albert G. Bennett, president of the Pennsylvania Pilots' association, who returned here aboard the pilot boat J. Henry Edmunds from a fishing cruise with a party of friends, said that while fishing 120 miles east-southeast of Five-Fathom Bank Lightship and 100 miles offshore, he hooked a man-eating shark that took him three hours and twenty minutes to get aboard of the pilot boat.

The shark measured eleven feet and ten inches and weighed almost 800 pounds. A New York man aboard had the teeth of the shark removed for souvenirs. They measured three inches long.

PHONE PATRONS TO 'RING' OWN CONNECTIONS AFTER SHIFT SATURDAY

'Audible Signal' System Instituted Here; May 'Hear' Bell Buzz

MODERN SERVICE SEEN

Operators to Report For Work at New Building Beginning Sunday

"I am trying to complete your call."

This response made by telephone operators at the switchboard in the Santa Ana exchange of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company will become obsolete about 10 o'clock Saturday night, E. S. Morrow, local manager, announced today. At that hour, Morrow said, the company expects to transfer all operations to its new quarter-million dollar building and plant on the northeast corner of Bush and Fifth streets.

Santa Ana patrons then will experience an innovation in local telephone service, according to the manager, in the introduction of the "audible ringing signal." The system, he said, is that employed in Los Angeles and other Southern California cities.

Only Makes Connection. "By the new system," Morrow continued, "when a number is given to the operator, and she makes the connection, it will be possible for the calling party to determine that the telephone at the other end of the line is ringing. The sound will be an intermittent buzzing that will be audible to the party calling."

If the called station does not answer after a reasonable number of rings are heard, the calling party should hang up without waiting for the operator to report, "they do not answer." "This system will replace that now in use, by which the operator cuts onto the calling party's line at intervals and says, 'I am trying to complete your call.' If the line to a station called is busy, the operator will so advise."

Explaining further, the manager said that the "audible ringing signal" will continue so long as the calling party keeps the receiver off the hook.

See Better Service. "Automatic machinery will cause the called telephone to ring at intervals so long as the calling party keeps his receiver off the hook."

He pointed out that it no longer will be necessary for the operator to manipulate a key in order to ring the called telephones.

According to Morrow, the new equipment is of the most modern type, and means the most satisfactory service possible, both from the standpoint of operators and subscribers.

For the purpose of acquainting the public so far as possible with the operation of the new signal system, Morrow contemplated making brief talks this week before a number of local organizations, particularly the luncheon clubs. He addressed the Rotary club today.

SHANGHAI RUM CLAIMS MANY SEA ROVERS

SHANGHAI, Aug. 12.—The grotto at the south entrance to the Shanghai Public Garden has become a Mecca for the beachcombers of Shanghai. Here, lounging about away from the view of the casual stroller in the gardens, they assemble every afternoon.

Here are all types of sailor men—Americans, Liverpool Irishmen, Irish Irishmen, Scandinavians, negroes, Cooks, Latins—all colors from white to jet black. And all ages are represented, too—from the youth who had made his first voyage and promised that if he ever got away from Shanghai he would never get drunk again, to the bronzed old sea dog, the hard case. They are all clad in all conditions of clothing, some passably dressed, and some with hardly enough clothes to keep them decent.

Here they sit, every afternoon—about twenty-five of them at present—all "brothers in booze." Everyone of them came here on a ship, went ashore for a drink, and awoke to find the vessel gone, leaving him broke and stranded, waiting for another ship, they join their fellow "left-behinds" and make the grotto their headquarters.

They seem contented enough so long as they can get a meal a day and some "booze"—and "masking" the meal if they can get the drink. In most cases the gift of a dollar will be spent in drink rather than in food. It is one of the enigmas of human nature that these men find it easier to "bum" a dollar for drink than to appeal to their fellow residents for food—or to their solemnly state is the truth.

There they wait for the next ship—and to some it never comes. Just this last week a dead body was found outside a filthy dump in Honkew Park—"death from alcohol poisoning," the coroner's jury reported, the hasty funeral was attended only by a couple of bored officials, and that is the end of one man's dream of Shanghai, this "Eldorado of the East."

Washington City Clear of Debts For First Time

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—The city of Washington is out of debt. This announcement was made by the District of Columbia commissioners after it was made known that funds for the retirement of the last remaining bond issue of the city were available in the treasury.

It is the first time in history that the city has been out of debt and it is believed that it is a record seldom equaled by any large city in the country.

FOES IN FIGHT FOR CONGRESS HERE TODAY

of the Swing-For-Congress club.

Tomorrow morning he is to return to Riverside, where at noon he is to speak at a club luncheon. Tomorrow evening an open air meeting is to be held with Swing talking from the courthouse steps. Thursday noon he is to speak at Corona, and at 4 o'clock he is to arrive in this county to remain until after Sunday night.

Sample Scores Swing. In his address which he delivered at Fullerton last night, State Senator Sample played Congress-man Swing for his attitude toward the Boulder Dam project and the All-American canal.

He vigorously denied the charge that he had been partial to anti-prohibitionists, and insisted that, should he be elected to congress, he would be loyal to Governor Richardson and his policies.

"I am firmly in favor of the Mexican border closing laws," he declared. "The closing laws should be in effect until Mexico enforces her laws to put an end to the smuggling of liquor, narcotics and aliens into this country."

The Coolidge-Dawes platform is strongly championed by Sample, he declared, adding:

"This campaign is one of economics, not politics."

Alluding to the charges that he had favored anti-prohibitionists, Sample said:

"This accusation is entirely unjust, untrue and without foundation. The way to modify the dry law is to change the Constitution."

Lone Prospector Dies With Horses

BLYTHE, Aug. 12.—Blythe officials are searching for individuals who might have known of a man found dead eighteen miles south of Quartzsite last week by Arizona officials. K. OF C. HERE TO AID IN DRIVE FOR FUNDS

George W. Ravenkamp, grand knight of Santa Ana Council No. 1542, Knights of Columbus, today announced the appointment of a committee to solicit the council membership and friends of the organization for funds to assist in the erection of the University of Santa Clara of a memorial observatory for the use of Father Jerome Ricard, known as the "Padre of the Rains."

The committee is composed of A. M. O'Brien, Dr. A. V. Rossiter, George F. Nash, J. O. Markel, L. E. Geisel and A. P. Daley.

Daley said it is proposed to raise throughout the state $100,000 for building and equipping of the memorial observatory.

"The world-famous padre has been serving the farmers and business men of the Pacific coast for many years past, through his remarkably accurate long-range weather forecasts," Daley said. "His splendid achievement has been attained despite the handicaps of inadequate quarters and obsolete equipment, and given freely to everybody, regardless of race or creed. It is now the plan of the Knights of Columbus to provide a new and modern observatory for the venerable padre at Santa Clara University, and completely equip the structure with the most powerful and latest scientific and astronomical apparatus possible. It is said that if given the desired equipment with which to work, Father Ricard can extend his weather forecasts to the middle west and eastern states, and thus serve practically the entire North American continent. It also will be possible to perpetuate his wonderful work, by placing a corps of assistants under him, to whom he can pass on his theories and principles, calculated to carry these achievements on down through the years to come."

"It is the hope of the Knights of Columbus to break ground for the new observatory on Father Ricard's seventy-fifth birthday, in February. Present plans also call for the laying of the corner-stone of the edifice in the spring, and formal dedication of the completed building within a year."

ARREST TWO AT ANAHEIM. ANAHEIM, Aug. 12.—Arrested in a raid at the Colonial apartments here early yesterday morning, Harold Berger, 26, and Vera Seal, 24, were awaiting preliminary hearing today after pleading not guilty to a charge of possession of liquor, when arraigned before Justice Charles Kuchel here. Anaheim Trustees Set Days to Take Up Tax Problems

ANAHEIM, Aug. 12.—Fixing the date of August 15 as the time during which they will convene to hear the assessed valuations here as shown by the assessment rolls, the city trustees, convening here yesterday as a board of equalization, completed the check of all figures prepared by City Clerk E. B. Merritt.

The year's valuation reveals a decided increase with the largest gain being shown in the number of improvements which have been made during the past year. The total increase in valuation amounts to $1,030,900, divided as follows: real estate, 67,970; improvements, $873,515; personal improvements, $89,415.

Taxes will be levied this year on the basis of an assessed valuation of $10,116,895, as disclosed by the assessment rolls. This is after all exemptions have been deducted, which amount to $369,155.

The assessed valuation of the city for the year of 1923-24 was $9,085,995, and compared with the list for this year it indicates an excellent condition, which would result in a slash in the tax ratio.

$12,500 Estate Left to Widow, Two Children

Edward W. Wiekhorst, who died in this city August 5, left a $12,500 estate to his widow, Kate Wiekhorst, and two children, Francis Gowin, and Loyal Wiekhorst, according to a petition on file here today in the superior court, asking probate of the will.

Residence property at 114 Cypress street, where the heirs reside, was valued at $5,000 in the petition. Real estate at Riverside was given a valuation of $2500. Personal property made up the balance of the estate.

Attorney B. E. Tarver represents the petitioner, Mrs. Wiekhorst.

BOYHOOD HOME OF CLEVELAND ON MARKET

SYRACUSE, Aug. 12.—The boyhood home of the late President Grover Cleveland in Fayetteville, a gray rain and wind torn house which has weathered 100 years, is on sale for the first time since the day it was built.

It was to the slender looking house, with small second story windows, looking like half closed eyes through the trees, that the boy who was to be twice President came to live when just a wee tot. In a small room on the second floor, under the eaves, who knows what dreams Grover Cleveland dreamt as, with history book on lap and chin in hand, he gazed out of that window over Fayetteville.

Grover Cleveland's father, the Rev. Richard F. Cleveland, was pastor of Fayetteville from 1841 until 1850. During the nine years that Fayetteville knew him and the Cleveland children, Grover became a student of Miss Eliza Cole in the little red schoolhouse across the way. The Presbyterian church was on the corner of Main street and Academy street, and the gray old house which is now for sale was the parsonage.

When the Rev. Cleveland left Fayetteville the house in which the Cleveland family had made its home passed into the hands of William P. Thompson and has remained a possession of the Thompson family to this day.

CANADIAN FLOUR EXPORTS BEAT U. S.

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 12.—For the first time in trade history Canadian exports of flour have exceeded those of the United States. Figures for May in a report issued by the federal bureau of statistics place the Dominion's export of flour at 1,057,487 barrels, compared with 975,504 barrels by the United States in the same month.

The May export figures, the report points out, are significant of the fact that at the present rate of increase Canada within a few years will supplant the United States as the world's leading flour exporter. While the United States has held a dominating position in the international flour trade for the last half century, its exports have been steadily decreasing in the last five years.

Canada's development as a leading flour exporter, it is shown, has come since the war. Shipments from the Dominion in 1914 amounted to only 4,832,183 barrels, valued at $20,581,079. In the year ending March 31, 1924, flour exports totaled 11,714,929 barrels, worth $62,738,118. The United Kingdom was the heaviest buyer, taking 4,234,084 barrels.

Chocolate Cream Pie

2 squares chocolate
2 cups milk
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 beaten egg yolks
2 beaten egg whites
2 1/2 teaspoons vanilla
1 1/2 cup powdered sugar
Make plain pie dough. Place on reverse side of pie plate. Stick a few holes in with a fork and bake. Cool and fill with the following mixture:
In a double boiler put chocolate and one-half cup milk. When milk is scalded, stir until melted, add sugar, flour and salt mixed with the remaining milk. Stir until thick, replace over heat and cook fifteen minutes. Add egg yolks gradually, stir and cook two minutes. Pour over lightly beaten egg whites and beat until smooth. Cool and add two teaspoons of vanilla. If not thick enough add one tablespoon gelatin dissolved in two tablespoons water. Whip cream. Add one-half teaspoon vanilla and powdered sugar gradually and beat until thick. Put cream in pastry bag and force through tube on pie filling.

Pastry Tubes Make Those Pies Delightful

With a little practice a pastry tube will help you to decorate cakes or pies even more attractively than the baker does it. Too, you can initial the pastries as well. They cost a trifle.

RECOMMENDED BY HER DOCTOR

Found Strength by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Kankakee, Illinois.—"My mother-in-law always took your medicine for weakness, and then in the Change of Life it did her so much good that she induced me to take it for a weakness I had for a year and a half. It has strengthened me and now I have a nice baby boy. I do all my own housework now, and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound whenever I have the opportunity. I am taking it again for weakness, as my family doctor has recommended it for this purpose."
Mrs. HARRY COULOM, 984 North Harrison Ave., Kankakee, Illinois.

Real Evidence of Merit
For the relief of female weakness, pains and backache, nervousness and irregularities, with other troubles common to women, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine.
Its worth is thoroughly established by such letters as the above. There are women everywhere, who, having received benefit, gladly tell other women about it. For sale by druggists everywhere.

fresh and
Children like it. It's good for salads. Wonderful, too, for cooking. Made fresh daily on the Pacific Coast.

INDUSTRY LAND FIRM MEETING IS TONIGHT

Preliminary organization at the city council chambers at 7 p. m. today of the Santa Ana Industrial Land company, will be the first correct move Santa Ana has made for obtaining location here of worth while industrial concerns, in the opinion of A. N. Zerman, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce committee directing organization of the company.

"It is the first move in the right direction this city ever has taken," Zerman said, "and it should not be long before we will be in position to interest manufacturers in locating here."

With a total of $46,500 subscribers, a committee of workers was busy today interviewing local business men in the hope of increasing the amount to $50,000. Those scheduled to be called on were firms to whom the proposition had been explained, but who had not given the committee a definite answer as to participation.

Shift Payments
Zerman explained that a change in the plan of financing, so far as the frequency of payments are concerned, had been made to accommodate those who had subscribed for large blocks of stock. Instead of 20 per cent of the pledged amounts being due every six months, the installments will be payable annually, under the revised plan.

"We propose now to make the first payment of 20 per cent due when the company is organized and we receive a permit from the corporation commissioner to sell our stock," the chairman said.

"We believe that we can buy all the land we want on agreement to pay 20 per cent of principal annually, which means that subscribers would have a period of four years in which to meet their obligations."

Zerman added that even with the pledged amount, the company could now buy approximately 40 acres.

Owners of land suitable for industrial sites, according to Zerman, will be asked to submit proposals as soon as the company is in position to transact business legally.

To Elect Board
Election of a temporary board of directors for the purpose of filling articles of incorporation, it was said, will be the principal business subscribers will attend to at tonight's meeting. Zerman stated it would not be necessary to have a majority of the subscribers present in order to conduct the business to be taken care of. He urged, however, that every pledgor be present.

"The company is essential to the development of the city as an industrial center," Zerman contended. "By buying and holding lands for resale at cost, plus carrying charges, to manufacturing concerns, it will be possible to organize a compact industrial district. Such a grouping would be advantageous in many ways, and not the least of these would be the accommodations which one plant could give another."

MAKES BIG 'STRIKE' AT DESERTED MINE

ASPEN, Colo., Aug. 12.—Another story of a grim trick of fickle fortune was spun here with the news of a rich silver strike at Ashcroft, 12 miles south of Aspen, a deserted mining town.

According to reliable reports, a miner named Henry Fitzpatrick, from Butte, Mont., has opened an eight-foot vein which runs 70 per cent lead, and, according to a rapid assay, tests 100 ounces of silver to the ton. The vein also contains small paying quantities of gold, it is the richest strike here in several years.

According to their report, the real vein has not yet been uncovered and untold wealth may lie a few feet farther in the ground. The property is known as the Ten Cent mine, and lies on the east side of the mountain on which Ashcroft is situated. The vein is supposed to be an offshoot of the one which fed the Montezuma group, five miles away, so an immense territory will be opened up if further excavations bear out the promise of the original find.

Late Wednesday Aspen prospectors were rushing for the site, while as the news spread to other camps newcomers were arriving on the scene here.

Years ago a miner from Butte, Mont., named Fredericks, came into this district, according to old-timers here. He built the first cabin at Ashcroft and sank the first shaft, some 200 feet from the hut. He found a limited amount of rich meals and others followed in his footsteps. A mushroom town sprang up.

For a long time Fredericks kept up a hunt for rich lodes. At last discouraged, he gave up the job and disappeared. Ashcroft, like other ghost cities of the early west, was abandoned overnight. Deserted shacks are all that are left on the spot now.

Flyer Pays Fine As Crowd Periled

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—A precedent was established when Herbert Barr Griggs, navy air pilot, on leave, was fined $25 by Magistrate Goodman at Far Rockaway for flying his airplane at an altitude of only 125 feet above the heads of bathers at Rockaway Beach.

Griggs, who said he was on a thirty-day leave from Anacostia Field, Washington, was arrested on a charge of violation of the city ordinance which prohibits airplane flights over crowded thoroughfares or beaches.

He pleaded not guilty, contending he did not violate the ordinance because he was flying at a low altitude.

MISSION DAYS AT MONTEREY PLAY TOPIC

MONTEREY, Aug. 12.—This city, and in fact, all the cities of Monterey peninsula, have reverted back to the days of old, when the Spanish padres, bearing the cross of Christendom and blazing the way for the civilization which now obtains in this section, came to these shores and undertook the work of educating the natives. The motif for this reversion to another day is taken from the 140th anniversary of the death of Fr. Junipero Serra, father of the California Missions, which will be observed by the people of Monterey Peninsula cities October 12-19, this year.

In preparation for the event the men of Carmel, Del Monte, Monterey and Pacific Grove are now wearing facial adornments similar to those of the men who civilized this section of the Pacific coast. They are worn on the street, and in the business houses of Monterey peninsula cities. There are Spanish costumes, too. The ladies have taken this matter up, and even the housewife now goes about her daily tasks attired in the full skirt, tight bodice, mantilla and fancy headpiece of her great-grandmother, who lived in the days of the grand old padre and his fellow workers.

The week set aside for the fiesta is to be replete with interesting events, all partaking of the Spanish tone. There will be Spanish fandangoes, barbecues, a rodeo, and many other forms of merry-making, and underlying it all the note of deep religious significance in commemoration of the man whose life work was interwoven with the settling and civilization of Monterey peninsula.

The week will be replete with pageantry, which will be the contribution of the art and literature colony at Carmel-by-the-Sea. Perry Newberry, well known author, has

Candidate For S. D. Governor Killed By Bull

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Aug. 12.—Andrew S. Anderson, Democratic nominee for governor of South Dakota, was gored to death by a bull at his farm near Beresford, S. D., thirty miles south of Sioux Falls, in Clay county.

Telephone reports indicated that Anderson had gone to the pasture to take care of the stock when one of the bulls in his herd became enraged and attacked him.

Anderson came into politics in 1910, when he won a seat in the legislature from Clay county. He was nominated by the Democrats in 1916 as Lieutenant-Governor and polled more votes than any of his running mates. He declined the Democratic nomination for Governor in 1922, but accepted it this year.

Anniversary of Finding Oxygen Passes Unheeded

SUNBURY, Pa., Aug. 12.—August 1 marked the 150th anniversary of the discovery of oxygen by Dr. Joseph Priestley at Northumberland. The event went unobserved in the colonial borough. Fifty years ago, August 1, 1874, men of science from all over the country gathered at the Priestley homestead there and celebrated the anniversary.

The American Chemistry society now owns the homestead where the laboratory was located and where the great scientist made most of his experiments. It is planned by this organization to erect a memorial at his grave in the cemetery at Northumberland.

been made director-general of the discovery, and will handle all pageants assisted by a committee of his fellow workers in Carmel.

DESERT DEATH TOLL CONTINUES TO GROW

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 12.—Another desert tragedy was unfolded here yesterday when the body of a dead man, as yet unidentified, was found on the Santa Fe tracks near Newberry, according to a telegram received by Coroner J. B. Hanna of this city from Constable Lucas of Daggett.

No details regarding the death were given, although Coroner Hanna advanced the theory that the man had succumbed to the heat.

The Mojave is reaping its annual toll of victims this summer, scarcely a day passing without the report of a death from heat prostration. On Sunday the body of Charles S. Sheridan, 63 years of age, was found by Charles Wass, a stepson-in-law, two miles north of Dead Man's Point on the desert. Wass had searched for the missing man for two weeks, finally finding the body more than a mile from where Sheridan had left his stalled automobile.

Auto Deaths Make Huge Gain in N. Y.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Motor vehicles killed 188 persons in this state in July, according to a report of the National Highways Protective society. This makes the total deaths from this cause in the state this year 1135, much more than last year.

"These deaths will continue to increase," said Colonel Edward S. Cornell, president of the society, "so long as drivers of automobiles which kill pedestrians are lightly dealt with. Many of them are not punished at all."

In New York city the July death total from automobiles was fifty-eight. Sixteen occupants of motor vehicles were killed at train crossings. Trolleys killed four.

Live News From Orange County Towns

TUSTIN CHURCH SERVICES ARE CANCELLED

TUSTIN, Aug. 12.—No services will be held at the Advent Christian church here for the next two Sundays, it was announced today by Rev. William Snider, pastor of the church. Rev. Snider will be busy at the camp meeting to be held at Carlsbad during the coming two weeks. Many local people are planning to attend the affair.

Mrs. Lily Kelly and daughter, Louise, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Irving Raymond and family of San Diego, are spending several days visiting with friends in this city and Santa Ana. Mrs. Raymond will be remembered by many Santa Ana and Tustin people as Miss Blanche Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto C. Phillips motored to Santa Monica Monday on business.

Miss Dorothy Vasseur of South Pasadena is spending a two weeks' vacation visiting with relatives in this city.

Cecil Preston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Preston, is at home following a vacation of several weeks spent in the mountains near Big Bear Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Forney have moved to this city. They are at present staying at the Albee home on First street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Heaton and son, Carl, of Anaheim spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Gulick.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kinyon of Pacific avenue, who were struck here Saturday evening by an automobile while crossing the street at the intersection of Main and C streets, were today reported to be greatly improved. Mrs. Kinyon received a broken arm as well as numerous cuts and bruises. Mr. Kinyon was badly cut and bruised.

Work is progressing rapidly on the four-room bungalow being built on C street by Charles Crawford. E. A. Schwann of Santa Ana is the contractor for the building. The house will be of the popular bungalow type and will contain four rooms. It will cost about $3,500, it is estimated.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lamb and son, Kenneth, of Santa Ana were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Squibb here Sunday.

Mrs. S. Shirley left yesterday for Hollywood where she will make her future home. She has been staying at the home of Morgan Page of this city for the past several weeks. Her son, S. T. Taylor, motored here for her.

ENGLISH STUDENTS FEAR RACE SUICIDE

LONDON, Aug. 12.—England is doomed—unless the birthe among the desirable classes of the country increase rapidly. This is the conclusion reached by students of engines here.

England's population is increasing at a normal rate every year, so far as total figures go. But the eugenists point out that the increase comes, for the most part, from what may be termed the "insufficient classes".

Among unemployable paupers, criminals and defectives the birthrate is higher than among any other classes.

Among the so-called intellectual classes—hand and brain workers, professional and commercial people the birthrate already slumped below the safety point—that is, it has already reached the point where those classes will become extinct, unless their birthrate increases.

The Eugenic Education society, making these statements, explained:

"Where the number of a family is below one that family will normally die out. Actually now the birthrate in our intellectual classes has gone down to between two and three average."

"Our efficient classes, whether rich or poor, are actually on the decline, numerically. Our inefficient classes are increasing."

Professor A. L. Bowley, another authority, predicts that England's population will increase to 45,000,000 or 46,000,000 in 1941 and then commence a steady decline.

New Home Found For 150 Chickens

One hundred and fifty chickens were stolen Saturday night from the pens of Mrs. E. B. Brintlinger, near Buena Park, according to a report filed today at the sheriff's office here. Tracks made by a light automobile were found near the coops, according to the officers.

DOCTOR AND WIFE FALL TO DEATH FROM ALPS

ZERMATT, Switzerland, Aug. 12.—Doctor Braun of Vienna and his young wife lost their lives in the Swiss Alps in a fall while attempting to climb the Matterhorn without the aid of a guide. They fell 400 feet. A Berlin physician and his guide heard the screams and thud of the fall and found the bodies.

GRAPES SUBJECT TO EMBARGO RESTRICTIONS

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Juice grapes shipped from California will be subject to local freight embargo restrictions whenever traffic becomes heavy enough to warrant such action, according to A. E. Ruffer, manager of transportation for the Erie Railroad.

New York fruit trade men expect traffic to become heavy about the first week in September.

Garden Grove News

GARDEN GROVE, Aug. 11.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvine F. German at 295 West Ocean avenue was the scene of a delightful rook party Friday evening when Mr. and Mrs. German were host and hostess to a number of friends. Roses and dahlias helped to brighten the interior, the color scheme being carried out in shades of roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dungan were the fortunate pair who won lovely presents for high score. Mrs. Emmett Smith and Rollin Rossetol were awarded consolation gifts.

Enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dungan, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Rossetol, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chaffee, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Smiley, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Smith and Mr. and Mrs. German.

Mrs. C. B. Henry was a Los Angeles visitor Tuesday.

Miss Martha Kelsey returned Tuesday evening after a three weeks visit at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. M. J. Vaughn in Los Angeles.

About twenty members of the Junior department of the Methodist Sunday school accompanied by their superintendent, Mrs. Maxwell, motored to Huntington Beach Thursday evening where swimming and a picnic supper were enjoyed.

Mrs. C. B. Henry is enjoying a two weeks visit in Sierra Madre canyon with Mrs. Geo. Miller. Henry left Sunday for Murietta Hot Springs for a two weeks' sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Leming of Covington, Indiana, are guests at the home of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Kelsey. On Tuesday they enjoyed a motor trip to Riverside.

Mrs. W. R. Stokes of Hollywood is visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Lott for a few days.

Miss Clara Lott visited in Hemet over the week-end.

Members of the Philhellenic class of the Baptist Sunday school enjoyed a swim in the Anaheim lagoon Thursday evening and later had a picnic supper on the lawn of the Hedstrom home. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. P. M. German, Mrs. J. A. Knap and daughter Dorothy, Mrs. C. C. Arrowsmith, Mrs. J. R. Calvin, Mrs. G. Allen, Mrs. J. W. Cokerham, Mrs. Fred Darch, Mrs. Welchell, Mrs. Soule Gertly, Mrs. W. H. Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. C. Z. Wasson, Mrs. Ray Beardsley, Mrs. J. M. Gilbreath, Mrs. J. R. Wade, Mrs. Bertha Collins, Mrs. Ross Kilgus, Miss Margaret Arrowsmith, Miss Jennie Hedstrom and Miss Jennie Hedstrom.

Mormon missionaries who called on the Letsinger child who was so seriously burned on July 12, learned that more skin was needed for grafting and they with other members of the Sunday school, donated sufficient skin to finish the grafting. All grafts so far have done well and the baby is recovering with no mark or scar.

The Home Economics club was entertained very delightfully Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Monroe. Pink and blue asters were arranged artistically in large bowls throughout the rooms. Sewing was the diversion of the afternoon after which the hostess served dainty refreshments of sherbet and cake. Those present were Mrs. Claude Wasson, Mrs. Emmett Smith, Mrs. Homer Nichols, Mrs. Cecil Hall, Mrs. C. E. Hogue, Mrs. Fred Schneider, Mrs. Irvine German and Mrs. Monroe.

The women of the Civic club met at the club house Tuesday for a day of sewing. As a result of their labors six comforts were pieced and tied for the children in the Preventorium camp at Trabuco canyon. On next Tuesday, August 14, the ladies will visit the camp and will furnish the dinner for the youngsters. Each lady is asked to bring a dish of string beans, scalloped potatoes, or rice pudding, besides bread and butter. All ladies of the community are invited to her eighth birthday anniversary on Monday afternoon when about twenty children were entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Brown. An afternoon of games quickly passed and dainty refreshments of ice cream, cake and punch were served.

Jeanette received many beautiful gifts. Among those present were Juanita Randall, Clara Kaufman, Lucille Ward, Jewel Rogers, Dorothy Beardsley, Mildred Roberson, Jennie Clark, Hanna Mae Jorgenson, Margaret Arrowsmith, Cleo Bell Brown, Clinton Randall, Kenneth Wade, Vernon Weaver, Edward Launders, Willard Launders, Franklin and Warren McDonald and the hostess.

SWING TO TALK IN FULLERTON ON FRIDAY

FULLERTON, Aug. 12.—Signalizing the opening of the coming election campaign, Senator Ed. P. Sample of San Diego, who is running under a Coolidge and Richardson banner for the Republican nomination as congressman, addressed a street meeting here last night.

He devoted his talk to a resume of the stand he has taken during his previous incumbency and to an outline of his platform. With reference to the closing of the international border line at 7 p. m., he said he was in harmony with the officials whose investigations of the smuggling of liquor and narcotics and aliens into the United States brought about the order.

Preparations are being made for the meeting to be held on Friday when Congressman Phil Swing will start his campaign for reelection in this part of the county.

FARM CENTERS TO HAVE JOINT MEET

TUSTIN, Aug. 12.—A joint picnic meeting of the farm centers of Tustin, Costa Mesa and El Toro is being arranged for August 14 at the Orange County park, it was announced today by D. D. Field, president of the Tustin center.

According to Field, a committee is at work preparing stunts and program for the evening. The meeting will be called to order at 4 p. m. when a picnic lunch will be enjoyed. Coffee will be furnished by the center. A short business session will be held following the program.

FISHERMEN TALK TO CHURCH PEOPLE

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Aug. 12.—Short addresses given by seven members of the "Big Ten" fishermen of this city featured the "Isaac Walton" fishermen's meeting held at the First Methodist Episcopal church here Sunday evening.

Rev. Andrew Shamel, pastor of the church, preached a special sermon for the occasion. During the talks the men gave tribute to Dr. F. E. Wilson, one of their friends and church members, who passed away during their absence on a fishing trip recently.

Members of the fishing party formed the choir during the musical services for the evening. Those who formed the choir were T. R. Canady, R. C. Turner, Hansler Lart, J. W. Mitchell, E. C. Wright, William Adair and Glen Turner. These were the members of the fishing party were absent.

Clair Head and Mrs. W. B. Wentz.

Dorothy Allen was pleasantly surprised Tuesday afternoon when guests arrived to help celebrate her twelfth birthday anniversary. Games were enjoyed throughout the afternoon until all were ushered into the house where the table had been beautifully decorated with pink and green streamers and dainty refreshments were served. Many pretty gifts were bestowed upon the hostess. Those present were Agnetta Wheeler, Velma King, Myra Lake, Grace Junkin, Ellen Oertly, Zolile D. Morris, Gladys and Esther Cokerham and Dorothy Allen.

Mrs. Flora Davis is entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Pervine and daughter Ruth of Santa Monica this week.

A new form of street decoration will soon be ready for use in Garden Grove, merchants have in co-operation with the Chamber of Commerce and arranged with Mr. Long of Anaheim to install a uniform system. A flag receptacle and standard is to be placed in front of the business houses at the edge of the sidewalk and on appropriate occasions a flag will be displayed. This effective and beautiful form of decoration has been highly praised by those who have visited larger cities which have already installed the equipment and while the idea is comparatively new, it is meeting with great favor and many towns of Orange county have placed their orders with Mr. Long.

Miss Ada Murphy of Seattle is a guest at the home of Mrs. Anna New and family.

Mrs. A. S. Perry of Los Angeles was a guest at the home of Geo. Bonz Tuesday.

Mrs. R. A. Wilcox accompanied by Mrs. A. Gibson of Redlands were in the first of the week for Bishop where they will enjoy a vacation.

The graduating class of the grammar school held a picnic at Orange county park yesterday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ross, formerly Miss Kerfoot, principal of Costa Mesa schools.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin, all of Costa Mesa, are spending their vacation at Mono Lake.

BEACH MAN IS FINE FOR BEING DRUNK

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Aug. 12.—D. J. Murphy, of this city was fined $75 by City Recorder C. W. Warner here on charges of drunkenness. Murphy was warned by Judge Warner to keep to the "straight and narrow path" in the future or he would be given six months in the county jail for the next offense.

A. C. Sherman of this city was today in custody of R. L. Pruitt, deputy sheriff of Taft. Sherman was arrested here by local officers, charged him with defrauding an innkeeper.

Louis Maganna, charged with illegal possession of intoxicating liquor, was fined $50 by Judge Warner.

The trial of Charles P. Clark, brother of E. P. Clark, editor of the Riverside newspaper, who was arrested here recently charged with lewd and lascivious conduct toward a minor child was postponed indefinitely on receipt of word here that Clark was at present lodged in the state hospital at Norwalk.

Miss YVONNE CHAPPELLE

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Aug. 12.—Miss Yvonne Chappelle, motion picture actress vaudeville star, and former Follies beauty, who appeared here Saturday in several dancing numbers at the program given by the chamber of commerce, declares there is no place like Huntington Beach.

"This cool breeze is wonderful," she declared. Dancing on the sand and a dip in the surf was only added pleasure, according to Miss Chappelle. She is expecting to appear here again soon as well as in Santa Ana and other cities. "Yes, I will come back to Huntington Beach for my vacation, and dance some more on the sand," she said.

EL TORO ACTORS TO PRESENT PLAY

EL TORO, Aug. 12.—Amateur actors and actresses of El Toro are working hard on a four-act play, to be given at the Tustin Union high school early in September. The performance will be given to raise funds for the El Toro cemetery, which needs various improvements. Doris Bargsten Prothero is the director. She is giving freely of her time and sparing no effort to make the play a success. Most of the players are well known in high school circles by their past performances of this kind. Ernest Boynton took the leading role in the 1924 Senior play at Tustin, again plays the masculine lead, supported by George Harris, John Trapp, Charlotte Moulton, Charlene Swartz, Richard Harris, Bessie Carrillo, George Osterman, Ruth Trapp and Leroy Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Vislander, Mrs. C. E. Scott, Gerald and Clair Scott, Mrs. Hiram Whisler, Elmer Whisler, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gray, Cary and Catherine Gray, Mrs. L. A. Hemenway, are vacationing at San Juan Hot Springs.

L. F. Moulton returned Monday after spending the week-end at La Jolla with Mrs. Moulton and daughter, Louise and Charlotte, who are enjoying a vacation in the southern city for the month of August.

Mrs. Raymond Prothero and baby are with her parents at Balboa, for a few days.

Miss Dorothy Stevens visited her aunt, near Los Angeles last week. Mrs. Mild Stevens is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank Salter in Placentia.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Trapp were hosts to a group of friends recently, celebrating Mr. Trapp's birthday.

Mrs. I. J. Lopizich motored from her home in Los Angeles Sunday to visit her mother, Mrs. Cynthia Gordon.

Friends of the Adkinson family gathered at Smith and Tutill parlors to pay their last respects to "Grandma" Adkinson, who was familiarly known, who passed away late Wednesday night.

Rev. T. Porter, of the First Christian church of Santa Ana, urged the loved ones to be inspired by the life of this wonderful pioneer woman. His words of comfort to the aged husband were especially touching, when he thought of the severing of fifty-nine years of "Asleep in Jesus" and "Crossing of the Bar." Surrounded by many beautiful flowers which marked the esteem of her friends, six stalwart young men, all grandsons, carried the casket to its last resting place in Fairhaven cemetery.

Beach Campground To Be One of Best On Coast Is Claim

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Aug. 12.—Work on the fence about the auto camp grounds now under construction in this city will be completed the last of next week or the first of next week, it was announced today by City Engineer E. M. Billings. An appropriate design has been adopted for the fence about the camp. A lattice work will be built about the sides and front of the camp with a high board fence in the rear.

Six men are now at work on the ground. Posts for the erection of the fence were completed last week. Billings stated that each kitchen in the camp, there will be two large communal kitchens in the camp, each will contain six plates, each of which will accommodate a family. Two rest rooms and comfort stations are also to be installed at once on the ground.

There will be approximately forty-five camp sites in the camp, according to Billings. Each of the camp sites will be twenty-five feet wide by thirty feet long. Many applications have already been received by the city trustees for the position of caretaker of the camp ground, but they will not be considered until the camp is nearing completion.

It is the aim of the city trustees here to make the local auto camp one of the best equipped on the coast. Trustees Richard Drew and James MacKlin recently returned from a trip throughout several of the northern states and Canada with many ideas for the improvement of the local auto camp.

"These improvements will have to be undertaken one at a time, however," it was explained by William Wharton, one of the members of the city council who stated that the camp would be completed as soon as possible.

Costa Mesa Man Fined At Newport

NEWPORT BEACH, Aug. 12.—John Yeargan of Costa Mesa, arrested here on an alleged liquor charge Saturday night, pleaded no guilty before Judge Wilson Monday.

Yeargan was arrested in one of the local auto parks after the police had been given a tip that there was a cargo of liquor in his car. While no liquor was found in Yeargan's machine, he was accused of having it concealed in another vehicle in which he had been prior to his arrest and in which liquor was found.

Break Ground For Woman's Clubhouse

FULLERTON, Aug. 12.—Ground will be broken this week on the site of the new Ebbl clubhouse at the corner of Chapman and Harvard avenues. Construction work is to follow immediately the excavations are ready, it is announced, by leading local club women.

Plans, prepared by Fay Spangler of Santa Ana, have been approved, and a contract for the erection of the first unit of the building, to cost $11,500, has been awarded to O. S. Compton, local builder. Guy Campbell will start moving earth for the foundations within the next few days.

A $35,000 structure, following the Spanish style of architecture, is the ultimate aim of the Ebbl club women. The first section, which will later be adapted for other purposes, will contain an auditorium, with seating accommodations for 200, a stage, dressing room, a parlor, a lobby, retiring rooms, a cloistered dining room, kitchen, a check room.

The building will be distinctive in its general plan. It will be of stucco finish and the roof will be of red tiles.

The club's building committee comprises Mesdames Adrian King, chairman, Albert Stuelkel, O. S. Compton, J. T. Hill.

The start on the week marks the culmination of hopes of several years' standing. The project has been brought to a tentative stage several times previously but has never been actually "put over."

GRAIN PRICES GAIN ON CHICAGO MARKET

(By United Press Leased Wire)
CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—Grain futures closed at the day's peak price on the board of trade today. Corn was the market leader.

Unfavorable crop news stimulated buying in wheat and brought a sharp reaction from the mid-day dip. Most of crop complaints came from the Canadian growing districts. Frosts and low temperatures last night, according to advices, caused damage.

Further complaints of rain and cool weather brought influential buyers into the corn pit and sent prices up from 1 1/2 to 2 1/2. A fairly good cash business helped stimulate the current delivery, as did light country offerings.

Data was helped by strength in other grains and unfavorable crop comment.

Provisions rallied fractionally late with grains and prospects of lighter shipments.

THE NERVOUS WRECK

by E.J. Rath

©1924 - by NEA Service Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

The "Nervous Wreck," an eccentric young easterner, drives Sally Morgan, daughter of a Montana ranch owner, over a rough, uncertain trail from the ranch to the railroad station. They run out of gasoline and the occupants of a passing car refuse to lend them any. The Wreck takes five gallons at the point of a gun and drives on.

Later they are held captive at the ranch along the way because the foreman, Charlie McQueen, needs a doctor and Sally fills that need. They discover that the owner of the ranch is the owner of the car which they had run out of gas. McQueen announces that the owner is Mr. Underwood of New York, and that he and his boy and girl expect to stay at the ranch for several weeks.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

"His belt from New York is why I was so particular about the lookin'." I had Chinks here last week, but, as I told you, the boys got kind of juvenile with 'em and they lit out. It seems that a Chink expects you to take him serious. He beats hell."

"The boss must have money," suggested Sally.

"Yes, ma'am; he's lousy with it. He raises fancy cattle, only that ain't the way he made his money. He took it from somebody in Wall Street. But there ain't any finer cattle in Montana. They don't know how he made his money. They don't care. I can't say that I care anything myself. I'm liberal in my views. If I were you, ma'am, I'd sort of give 'em plenty to eat, but I'd make it look like much like New York as I could."

"Oh, I'll give them lots," said Sally.

"Don't you worry, old—" It slipped half way from her lips—"old timer." It was awfully hard to play tenderfoot when Charley was around. But Charley gave no sign that he noticed anything.

"That's right, ma'am; feed 'em liberal and fancy. I can see you're goin' to make an awful hit with the boys."

He went out again, satisfied that dinner was under way and that Sally would be a credit to his discrimination in cooks. She was flying around the kitchen like a marionette on wires, attending to three or four things at once, but without the least trace of confusion.

"Poke that fire up, Henry; put a lot of wood on it and get it going. I want a hot oven. There's a pile of wood outside the door. Fill the kettle with water on the sink pump and put it on. I've got fifty things to do, and you've got to get along with some of them. Better put your apron on, too; you'll get all mussed up if you don't."

The Wreck went about his task with a scowl.

"The big lying hog," he said, "never touched their watches and valuables."

"They're just excited," explained Sally, as she hurried for a rolling pin. "People always exaggerate. Charley doesn't suspect us, anyhow, so there's that much gained. Don't fill the teakettle too full; it'll boil over."

"I'm not. I'll be hanged if I'd break my neck cooking for them."

"That's nothing. I've cooked for lots of people. Besides, we're staying for time. We're going to give them the best meal we know how."

"Chinamen's work!"

"It would be a good thing for us if we were Chinamen," said Sally, blandly. "Then we'd have a complete alibi."

He grumbled his way through the chores, but she could not complain that he was inefficient. Although he seemed constantly at the point of disobedience, the Wreck followed his orders. He even kept a faithful eye on the stove, while she went into the dining-room to set the table. She took a swift peep into the living room while engaged in this task, but the Underwood family was evidently up-stairs.

"Underwood?" she mused. "Can't say that I remember hearing the name around here. Fancy cattle, eh? I've heard of somebody around here who raised prize Herefords. I'll bet it's the same one. But if it is, we're a long way from the Bar-M. We haven't any neighbors like that."

There were footsteps on the staircase that came down into the living rooms, and Sally, with a final look at the table, fled back into the kitchen.

"They're coming down," she informed the Wreck. "We've got to hurry. Thank Heaven, biscuits don't take long. You keep an eye on that coffee, and don't let it boil. Stop it just when it starts. I haven't time to cook any meat; besides, I don't know where they keep it. They're going to have an omelette."

It was a very large omelette that she made, fluffy and thick, a rhapsody in yellows and golden browns. The Wreck eyed it with jealous disapproval, but she did not give him time to express an opinion. She had him opening a can of soup and pouring it into a sauce-pan for heating. There was time for that much, anyhow.

"I'll cook them a regular meal next time," she promised. "But this will have to do for short notice."

Her enthusiasm for the odious task depressed him.

"Don't work your head off," he advised. "You'll get no thanks for it."

"Oh, I've got lots to do yet," said Sally cheerfully. "For one thing, I've got to wait on the table."

The Wreck nearly upset the coffee pot in his anger.

"You will not!" he exclaimed. "Of course I will."

"I'll not have you waiting on hogs, Sally Morgan. They can wait on themselves. They don't eat in the kitchen. Somebody's got to carry it to them."

"All right, then. I'll carry it to 'em."

She stared, then shook her head vehemently.

"You can't. You've got to dodge them as long as you can. There'll be a blow-up as sure as a gun, the minute they see you."

"Well, I'm going to wait on them, if anybody does," he said, higher and higher.

doggedly. "What's the use of dodging around? We may just as well find out now as any other time."

"See here, Henry Williams! If you—"

She stopped, studied his face with a new interest and remembered something. Reaching out, she lifted off his spectacles, then stepped back a pace for another inspection. Her scrutiny lasted several seconds.

"It makes you look tremendously different," she said. "Can you see anything without them?"

"I can see you," said the Wreck, blinking.

"Wait a minute."

She ran to a closet and came back carrying a starched white jacket.

"It must have belonged to one of the Chinamen," she said, "but I think it will fit you. Put it on."

She managed to get him into it, after fierce protest. Then she viewed him again.

"I really believe," she said slowly, "that you can get away with it. With that, and the apron, and no spectacles, you don't look the least bit like a nervous wreck. You don't look like a hold-up man, anyhow. And if you're sure you can get around without falling over things, I believe I'll let you try it."

"Oh, I'll give them lots," said Sally.

"Don't you worry, old—" It slipped half way from her lips—"old timer." It was awfully hard to play tenderfoot when Charley was around. But Charley gave no sign that he noticed anything.

"That's right, ma'am; feed 'em liberal and fancy. I can see you're goin' to make an awful hit with the boys."

AUTO RACES AT GREENVILLE ASSURED

Track Will Be Ready In Few Days For Tryouts Says Man In Charge

Entrants in the automobile races to be held under the auspices of the Orange County Auto Racing association, are looking forward to the end of this week when it is expected that the track now under construction at the corner of Edinger street and Greenville road will be completed and ready for practice spins.

According to Frank Stansfield, manager of the association, the track gives promise of being one of the fastest dirt tracks in Southern California. The track is five-eighths of a mile, the same distance as the Ascot speedway in Los Angeles.

Miles Von Shrititz in charge of the work at the track, declared today that the track would be finished by Saturday. Two large tractors, scrapers, graders and a large crew of men are at work at the track this week.

Further arrangements for the race including several surprise events for the racing fans of this section are promised by Stansfield. They will be announced following a meeting of the racing association which will be held here Wednesday night. A list of prizes is also expected to be completed at the meeting Wednesday, according to Stansfield.

PLAY THIRD ROUND OF JUNIOR TENNIS

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—Third round matches in the boys and junior national tennis tournament were held today.

Sandy Weiner, "Big Bill" Tilden's protegee, proved a big disappointment when he was eliminated in the first round of the junior championship by Lewis Watson, New York, 8-6, 8-6.

George Lott, Chicago, defending junior title holder, came through the first two rounds.

MAY GET MATCH
NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Jack Renault, Canadian heavyweight champion, may be given a bout with the winner of the Pigo-Wills contest or with Tommy Gibbons as a result of his decisive 15-round victory over Bartley Madden here last night.

GOSSIP OF GOLF DOM

BY JOE WILLIAMS

The scribes wanted to see Bill Melhorn of St. Louis win the open golf championship at Oakland Hills this year. Bill would have made great copy. Few people know it, but Bill is a reformed hood carrier. What's more, he looks it. In build he suggests the smashing fullback of the 1906 vintage. His huge shoulders are slightly stooped. "What makes you walk bent over like that?" a friend inquired at Detroit. "If you had carried bricks up five flights when you were a kid you'd walk that way, too," was the answer.

Bill wasn't kidding either. That was his racket some 15 years ago when he was a sturdy youth in Chicago. Melhorn came to golf via the caddy route. His fine physique and fine fighting ability soon carried him to the lofty summits.

Not so many moons back Melhorn was touched by the glittering wand of romance. A beautiful circus bare-back rider came into his life, and a pretty little ceremony followed. Mrs. Melhorn gave up the sawdust ring for the more domesticated role of wife. You see her at all the tournaments these days, always leading the gallery, pulling hard for Bill. She almost pulled him across at Oakland Hills. For a time it looked as if he'd win. As it was he finished third with 301, a stroke back of Bobby Jones. Melhorn has the game, temperament and courage to be a champion. Since he is still young his time may come yet.

Melhorn is a fighter in action. He recall an explosion shot he played out of a sand trap at the twelfth hole at Oakland Hills during the final round. The ball rested in a heel print. A combination of perfect timing and great muscular effort was demanded.

Melhorn rolled up his sleeves, barked at his caddy to leave the green, waved the gallery to move to one side, gritted his teeth and banged away. This was not an actor's gesture. It was concentration and determination, plus.

Melhorn made a perfect out, incidentally, and holed for a par 5 when it looked as if he'd be lucky to get down in 7.

DAVE SHADE MEETS COLIMA AT VERNON

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 12.—Seeking to win back prestige lost in a previous encounter, Dave Shade, the California welterweight who gets a poke at the winner of the Benny Leonard-Mickey Walker fight, boxes a return match with Bert Colima, swarthy middleweight, over the four-round route at Vernon tonight.

Five weeks ago Colima took a decision from Shade in the same ring. Since that time Dave's supporters have claimed another fight would result differently. Both fighters are expected to head eastward after the scrap and will be turning in their best efforts in tonight's affair.

NEW GOLF BALL TO BE AVAILABLE SOON

A new golf ball, conforming in weight and size to the decided upon as "official," is being manufactured and will shortly be available for all golfers. A disappointment awaits those who play it for the first time. The ball, 1.55 ounces in weight, has much less run than those in use now.

The implement and ball committee of the U. S. G. A. has been in communication with the committee of the Royal and Ancient at St. Andrews, and differences of opinion as to the desirable size and weight for a standard ball have been largely removed.

While the average duffer's game needs correction in the matter of direction rather than additional distance, it will be a great disappointment to many to get a straight long ball and feel: "If that had been my old Golden Queen, I'd have had fifty yards more on that drive." It is said the new ball will carry practically as far as those popular today, but the run is less, and when it lands in a bunker, it generally stays there.

One former champion is of the opinion that use of the new ball will necessitate shortening many courses. Oakland Hills, where the National Open was played this year, is nearly 7,000 yards long, and as this champion golfer put it: "The average golfer never would get around."

Moran No Match For Ben Leonard

CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—Benny Leonard, world's lightweight champion, defeated Pal Moran, New Orleans, here last night in an easygoing ten-round bout. The champion dashed about, landing long here and there on Moran, who stumbled and swung wildly in return.

BALBOA YACHTS ENTERED IN REGATTA

Southland Yacht Club Has More Than 20 Boats at Big San Diego Meeting

The Southland Sailing club of Balboa has more than twenty boats of all descriptions at the Annual Pacific Coast regatta at San Diego this week. Twenty of the craft were taken down last Friday under tow and the California and Mariposa made the trip under their own sails.

Unusual interest is being taken in yachting by the members of this comparatively new club. An exhibit of cups and trophies have been placed on exhibit in the Bishop and Smith windows in Santa Ana. These same trophies have been on display in the windows of various banks in Los Angeles for the past few weeks.

A total of twenty-six races have been staged thus far this season by the Southland Sailing club and twenty more will be held before the present season closes late in September.

Two weeks ago a race was started in which twenty-four boats took part. It was a handicap affair and practically every sailing vessel flying the Southland colors was entered.

All the Southland Sailing club races are held at Balboa either in Newport Bay or out in the ocean.

PLAY TWO GAMES IN DOUBLES LOOP

Lane and James with a total of 1011 won four points from Dittlinger and Snee in the Doubles Bowling league on the A. and B. alleys last night. The final game of the three was the closest of the evening, the losers dropping the game by two points.

McConnell and Gordon won two games and total pins but dropped the final game when Judd, of the Judd-Crowder team, rolled a 211 game.

Following are the scores:

GIRL CHAMPION EASY WINNER AT TENNIS

Rainy Weather Today and Wet Courts May Postpone Second Round

BY HENRY L. FARRELL

United Press Staff Correspondent
FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 12.—Bad weather threatened to force a postponement of the second round of women's national championship play scheduled here this afternoon.

The courts were thoroughly soaked by a heavy early morning downpour.

Of the 59 players who started in the first round yesterday, 30 survived. All of the favorites came through with rather easy victories. None of the ranking players, who were "seeded" in the draw, had an opponent to class with Mrs. L. C. Beaupre, the former champion of Quebec, who opposed Miss Helen Wills, the national and Olympic champion.

The 18-year-old California girl played some of the best tennis of her career. The best the Canadian woman could do was to carry two games to short duce in the second set.

Mrs. Molla Mallory, Miss Eleanor Goss, Miss Mary K. Browne, Miss Edith Sigourney, Miss Martha Bayard and Miss Mayme McDonald came through easily, but they were not tested like the young champion.

Feature matches on the program today were to bring Miss Wills against Miss Helene Pollock Falki; Miss Goss against Mrs. B. E. Cole; Miss Browne against Miss Penelope Anderson, and Mrs. Jessup against Miss Mary Case. Mrs. Mallory was not scheduled to play today.

If you want to know how bad the heat wave really was, Dazzy Vance fanned seven men in a row in Chicago the other day.

Some people will believe anything. Even a fight manager who boasts his boy is a second Terry McGovern.

A Boston middleweight jumped into the Charles river on a promise but wouldn't stay down, the double crossover!

One nice thing about the beginning of football practice is that it makes the explanation of a black eye much easier.

Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock was beaten in an English race last week. Sir Thomas is easily the Joe Beckett of the yachtsmen.

Carpenter's next opponent will be Mr. Slatery of Buffalo. Whether the Frenchman will lose on a foul or in the regular manner has not yet been decided.

The Prince of Wales is coming over to play polo next month. It looks like an early fall.

This has been an unusually fierce season for pests, what with the army mule, corn borer, boll weevil and threatened comeback of Mike McGuire.

The barnyard golfer can never hope to be taken seriously until he starts wearing knickers and carrying a flask.

Battling Siki wants to become an American citizen. "Dog gone! We always knew this was a great country!"

The market man is suing Bat Nelson for $220. You can't have nice, rich cauliflower ears and not expect to pay for them.

NO-MOR-FLY

No-Mor-Fly is just what its name indicates. It is the best fly exterminator we have ever been able to buy for it really kills the flies. We have seen instances where No-Mor-Fly was sprayed around at bedtime; and there wouldn't be a single live fly in the room the next morning.

No-Mor is nicely scented so that it is a pleasure to use about the house—there being absolutely no obnoxious tarry odors left. No-Mor can be sprayed lightly on clothing without the least danger of spotting the fabric. It can be used with excellent results spraying in clothes closets for moths—on or broadcloth upholstery in sedans.

THE LOWLY GARTER

Men look down upon their garters for the excellent reason that they cannot look up to them. Yet the garter, while performing its indispensable service of upholding our socks and our dignity, need not be the ugly article that custom and tradition paint. Garters, like suspenders and belts, have lately taken to leading a gay life and the brightest of colors have burst out in the webbing. There are two sorts of garters, each appealing to different wearers—the one with a single side support and that with a double side support, both sketched here. Some men fancy the one and some favor the other. It is an affair between you and your props. The double-support garter certainly keeps the sock tighter and smoother and its popularity is on the gain.

Similarly, some of us like wide-web garters; others choose the narrow webs. It is a matter of preference, not propriety. By the use of pads, cushions and never-let-go grips the modern garter has been made so comfortable, that one need never worry that it has fallen down on its job.

Brightly striped garters have lately gained their legs to pair off with matching suspenders. They are shown in all the modish colors—club, college, regimental and blazer—and they are sometimes sold to harmonize with belts as well. The white garter is the overwhelming favorite, though it soils most easily. Black, brown, blue, gray and other colors are in more limited request. Flat, thin clasps make garters more comfortable and unobtrusive.

Garters are in style but there is no special style in garters. Whatever suits you best in wear is best to wear. However, it is well to own several pairs, so that they will not wear out so quickly, but will always look spic-and-span.

EVENING SALUTATION

There is no end to the sky,
And the stars are everywhere,
And time is eternity,
And here is over there;
For the common deeds of the common day
Are ringing bells in the far-away.

—Henry Burton.

PROGRESS STEADY AND SURE

The Republican party is consistent—in its declarations, in its performances, and in the statements of its candidates. Nowhere else is that assertion better illustrated than in its stand on foreign relations. A feature of those relations is the steady world-pressure exerted by the Republican administration for the reduction of land and naval armaments and for the abolition of methods of warfare that add unnecessary horrors to war. On that subject the Republican platform has this to say:

"We firmly advocate the calling of a conference on the limitation of land forces, the use of submarines and poison gas, as proposed by President Coolidge, when by the adoption of a permanent reparations plan the conditions in Europe will make negotiations and co-operation opportune and possible."

That declaration is but the elaboration of a policy that has been consistently followed since the Republican party came into control of the government in March, 1921. On armistice day of that year the famous Washington conference assembled on invitation from the late President Harding and, among other things, agreed upon a treaty for the limitation of naval armaments of the five leading maritime powers. That treaty has since been ratified by all the governments concerned, and the five navies have been made to conform to its provisions.

Adhering to that armament limitation policy, President Coolidge stated in the course of his Lincoln day speech at New York, February 12:

"While the present time does not appear propitious for a further effort at limitation, should a European settlement be accomplished, something might be hoped for in that direction. The United States stands ready to join with the other great powers, whenever there appears to be prospects of agreement, in a further limitation of competitive armaments."

Since those words were spoken the Dawes committee has rendered its report, and means for the practical application of the "Dawes plan" are now under discussion in London. To assist in making that plan speedily effective, President Coolidge directed our ambassador at London to attend the meetings. Two members of the Coolidge cabinet have also found it convenient to be in Europe at this psychological moment. Secretary of State Hughes and Secretary of the Treasury Mellon are touring European capitals strictly in a private capacity, but they are making the most of opportunities to extend friendly advice to European statesmen and to assure them of the sympathetic concern of the United States for old world welfare. Largely due to the tactful efforts of Mr. Coolidge, through his advisers and otherwise, the time appears rapidly approaching when the Dawes plan will be adopted—in fact it now seems to be unanimously agreed upon—as a permanent reparations policy and the way is open for calling the next international conference along the lines marked out in the Republican platform.

That conference will deal not only with reduction of armies, but with further limitation on submarines and poison gas. The same five powers that agreed at Washington to limit their navies also pledged themselves to the restricted use of submarines, and to abolish as between themselves "the use in war of asphyxiating, poisonous or other gases, and all analogous liquids, materials, or devices."

What the Republican administration has done and is doing along this line is assurance that the declarations of the Republican platform and of President Coolidge himself will control Republican policy if the party is returned to power in November.

DON'T KISS THE BABY

Advice about babies is usually given to the mothers. Here is some for fathers, submitted by the New York Nursery and Child's hospital:

"Never kiss the baby on the mouth."
"Don't kiss the baby at all during its first two weeks."
"Do not kiss the mother on the mouth."
"Do not permit anyone else to kiss your wife or baby."

These rules, no doubt, will arouse the indignation of a lot of old-fashioned people, sentimental people and people who "don't believe in germs." And that is all right. If they will only observe the rules, the baby doctors don't care how mad they get.

Kissing, it has been proved to the satisfaction of the medical profession, is responsible for an enormous amount of contagious disease. The lips carry germs of various kinds. Some of them are harmless to adults, but become active and dangerous when transmitted to small children. It is largely because of the foolish custom of kissing babies that, as the hospital referred to declares, "a man of 65 has a better chance to live another year than an infant has of living the first month." Give the infant a fair chance.

FOR OUR CHILDREN'S CHILDREN

The importance of the movement started in Santa Ana looking toward acquisition of rights of the public to the use of Orange county beaches cannot be over-estimated. The changes that have occurred in the past two or three years are sufficient argument to convince us of the necessity of immediate action. Two or three years ago one could reach almost any cove or promontory or stretch of beach along the Orange county coast and remain without charge. The "Keep Out" and "Parking Fifty Cents" signs are rapidly increasing. Another year or two, and the whole beach may be sewed up. Surely, at this pace it can be no more than five or ten years until the public will have a hard time reaching portions of the county coast.

The board of supervisors should make it, from this day on, a rule to accept no beach subdivision map that does not make provision for public street connections with the high tide line. That is one thing that can be done. The report of M. B. Wellington, published in yesterday's Register, to the effect that at time of high tide the public has no place on a beach that it can call its own, suggests the advisability of action by the county toward the purchase of beach frontage.

And why not?
The reservations for the public along the cliffs at Laguna Beach make one of Laguna Beach's most striking features, and as years go by and frontages are taken over by private interests, this feature will grow in value to the community.

The acquisition of publicly-owned frontage and street rights of way to the beaches is not a matter of so much consequence to those of us who are here today, for, doubtless, even at the present rate of rapid development of subdivisions along the coast, most of us will always be able to reach any point we desire to reach, but it is a matter of tremendous consequence to our children and our children's children. Are they to be allowed to enjoy the beaches?

"A moderate expansion" is said to be all that conservative business men are looking for. And that is all the country needs.

A CITY'S TAX REBATE

Waste and extravagance and bigger budgets every year usually make the financial history of a growing city. Something different has just happened in Knoxville, Tenn. That city is just now paying its taxpayers a dividend in the form of a 10 per cent tax rebate.

Knoxville is being run on a business basis, with a city manager who handles civic affairs much as a business executive handles his corporation's affairs. The manager form of government has not always resulted in such efficiency and economy in the cities in which it has been tried. It cannot correct all the ills of city government if it lacks the backing of intelligent public spirit and opinion.

But on the whole the manager system has been found to pay. More than 300 cities now govern themselves on this plan. In most of them tax reduction has been possible. City finances, city purchasing, city improvements and so on have been handled better and with more widespread benefit and more quiet efficiency.

After all, if individuals can learn to handle their private affairs economically and thriftily, why cannot they learn to handle their joint public affairs in the same way?

Riverside, we believe, also has the honor of being the only city in Southern California to try segregation of sexes in its high school. After 4 years of costly and unsatisfactory operation of two high schools those in charge were glad to go back to the original plan of educating boys and girls together—as was intended by nature.—Riverside Enterprise.

Warden's Job Specialized

Visalia Delta

The polities are having a great time filling the position of Warden of San Quentin which has not yet been vacated by Warden James A. Johnston, but which Governor Richardson intends to fill just as soon as he can get rid of Johnston. The governor created a good deal of excitement the other day in stating that ex-Chief of Police Vollmer, of Los Angeles, could have the job if he wanted it. And when Vollmer firmly declared that he would not consider appointment as warden, Sheriff Veale, of Martinez, started a drive for the job. Veale has served as sheriff of Contra Costa county for 30 years, but wherein he would be any better man for the prison position than Johnston, who has served about 12 years as warden, does not appear. There is a distinct difference in the purposes of the positions: one is the apprehension of criminals, the other is their rehabilitation. It does not follow that a man who has been 30 years a sheriff would make a good warden. The idea of punishment as the aim of incarceration is changing to that of reclamation, and hence it becomes a highly specialized work for which men should be specially trained. Johnston is rated as one of the greatest penologists in the country. It will not be an easy job to find a man to succeed him, without the state and its wards suffering thereby.

Revolution In Central America

Pasadena Star-News

Report that two Americans have been slain in a revolutionary uprising in Honduras gives occasion for worry in official circles at Washington. American marines, stationed down that way, are said to have been sent to put a stop to the bloody work of the insurgents.

There is no warrant for the revolt. Like practically all of the revolutionary uprisings in Latin America, it arises from political ambitions, fostered by cunning aspirants for political power. Selfish ambitions have been and are the curse of several countries of Latin America. These give rise to frequent bloody outbreaks. The number of them, however, has been reduced by the firm attitude of the United States government. This country feels justified in interfering to prevent useless civil wars down there, which not only entail heavy losses on those republics, but often times endanger life and property of Americans. It is hoped and believed that ultimately, through the influence of the United States, the revolutionary habit may be broken throughout Latin America.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M. D.

I watched a little brook one day as it tumbled down over a small precipice. The water churned itself into a mass of foam, seemed to circle first in one direction and then into another, as if undecided as to its proper destination, then moved along again on its way.

I couldn't help but think of how much it resembled the individual who has been under a severe strain, has had a serious illness, a shock of some kind. He flounders about in his life's affairs, knowing not which way to turn.

His whole mechanism, nervous and muscular, is in such a turmoil that it is incapable of functioning properly. The result is that he says and does things that are not like him, because of this shock, and the after turmoil.

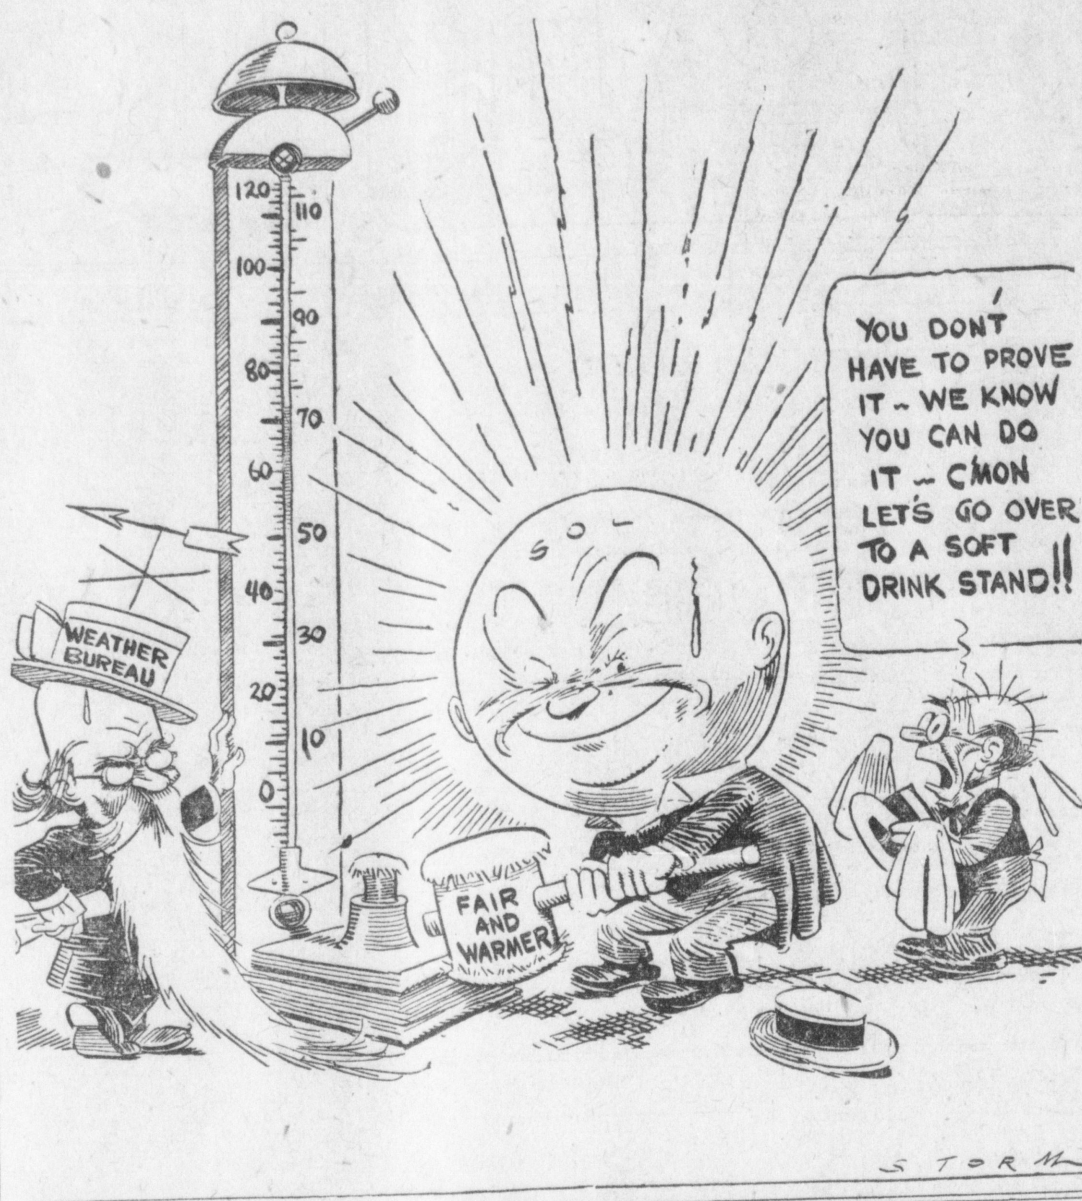

His ordinary habits of life are likewise in such a muddle that his eating, his sleeping, his ordinary exercise, just walking only, are all askew.

As I watched the brook I noticed that some sticks, branches and pieces of debris were helping to dam back the water, and kept it in small whirlpools, instead of letting it get along on its way. I removed these obstructions, and immediately the water burst away into the general stream.

You can thus see that after you have had a shock of illness, and are floundering around, that often there are little obstructions, physical and mental, that keep you for days, weeks, perhaps even months, from getting back to your normal self again. These obstructions may be due to some physical cause. For instance when you are well and strong an infected tooth or tonsil may not affect you, because your resistive forces overcome the effects. When you have been ill or have suffered a shock these forces are weakened, perhaps paralyzed for the time being.

If something is "on your mind," is worrying you, it also can be the obstruction holding back your natural flow of health. Look around, take hold of your mental, and physically, and get the obstruction removed.

Will He Ring the Bell?

EPITAPH UPON HUSBAND AND WIFE

(Who Died and Were Buried Together)

To these, whom death again did wed,
This grave's the second marriage-bed,
For though the hand of fate could force
Twixt soul and body a divorce,
It could not sever man and wife,
Because they both lived but one life.
Peace, good reader, do not weep!
Peace, the lovers are asleep!
They (sweet turtles) folded lie,
In the last knot love could tie.
Let them sleep, let them sleep on,
Till this stormy night be gone,
And the eternal morn'g dawn;
Then the curtains will be drawn,
And they wake into a light
Whose day shall never end in night.

—Richard Crashaw.

Happier Books Ahead

The people who have been suffering anxiety because of the decadence of modern literature, its brutal and sordid aspects and its general tendency to gloom, may take heart at the prediction of Richard Le Gallienne, a well-known writer of the present day.

Beauty and romance, warm-blooded, kindly humanity, all the combined solemnity, joyousness, pathos, charm and heartbreak of human life, are to appear in the coming literature. There will be rich expression of man's spiritual as well as physical being, and there will be renewed attention paid to faith, reverence and humility. "Joyousness," "charm," "beauty and romance," "faith" and "reverence" will all be welcome. They have as true a place in enduring literature as have sorrow and pain, and probably a truer place than meanness and sordidness.

"Though life has its foul and evil sides," writes Mr. Le Gallienne, "dirt and despair are merely the by-products of a process energetically joyous and mysteriously and lavishly beautiful."

In justice to some of the authors whose books are among the "current" volumes of recent years, this tendency is not wholly new. Not all literature, even in this much berated period, has followed the notion that fidelity to nature or to real life leaves no room for goodness or beauty. We welcome the tendency toward getting rid of the notion.

Worth While Verse

THE MASTER'S TOUCH

In the still air the music lies unheard;
In the rough marble beauty lies unseen:
To make the music and beauty, needs
The master's touch, the sculptor's chisel keen.

Great Master, touch us with thy skillful hand;
Let not the music that is in us die!
Great Sculptor, hew and polish us; nor let,
Hidden and lost, thy form within us lie!

Spare not the stroke! do with us as thou wilt!
Let there be naught unfinished, broken, marred;
Complete thy purpose, that we may become
Thy perfect image, thou our God and Lord!

—Horatius Bonar.

Time to Smile

BOY WANTED

Employer—It takes half my time rectifying your mistakes.
Office boy—Oh, well, I have my vacation next week and you can rest up.—Boston Transcript.

EXACTLY

Aunt—Can you explain wireless telegraphy to me, Arthur?
Arthur—Well, if you had a very long dog, reaching from London to Liverpool, and trod on its tail in London, it would bark in Liverpool. That telegraphy; and wireless is precisely the same only without the dog.—Passing Show, London.

Campaign Expenditures

Springfield (Mass.) Republican

Springfield (Mass.) All of these figures are taken from the reports of national committees and they fail to measure the sums actually expended by the either of the major parties. The actual Mark Hanna fund in 1896 was estimated at the time to run as high as $7,000,000. Five times as many votes were cast in 1920 as in 1860, but the increase in party funds and expenditures in the 60-year period was far greater, calculated in proportion to the growth of the electorate.

It now costs about 30,000,000 to have a presidential election, but this estimate covers state and local expenditures, amounting to one-third of the total, which are met by payments from taxes as provided by law. The remaining $20,000,000 is raised by voluntary subscriptions in one way or another through local and state committees; and in this class of subscriptions should be included also what is spent on primary and convention contests for nominations. Students of the subject do not seem to be far wrong in estimating that for a major party is spent about $10,000,000, although one may have a larger fund than the other in a particular year.

That the party expenditures would rise with every new presidential election, if there were no restraints upon them, is manifest. The opportunities for lavish expenditures in advertising and publicity alone are limitless. The number of people who would seek jobs in helping to spend the funds would enormously increase, if there were no check upon party managers. Senator Kenyon, who conducted the senate investigation in 1920, reported that "the expenditure of these vast sums is a present and growing menace to the nation." There must be some curb. It is to be hoped that this year the Borah committee's inquisitorial powers will supply it, for there is no federal corrupt practices act worth the notice of an unscrupulous politician.

Land of Israel

"Land of Israel" is being favored as a name for the Holy Land instead of the official "Palestine." Of course the name is for the present in limited use only among Jews outside writing to Palestine. In the country "Palestine" is the official name used universally, except in Hebrew translations of government documents, where the Hebrew letters forming the initials of two Hebrew words, "Eretz Israel" (Land of Israel), are being used parenthetically.

In Arabic the common name for the Holy Land is "Falest." Jews have always referred to the country as Eretz Israel, but when writing in a language other than Hebrew the accepted geographical name is applied.

It is only recently that at the instance of the Jewish World of London that some of its readers have begun addressing mail to the "Land of Israel." As far as is known all pieces of mail have been delivered to the addressees.—Gershon Agrosky in a Letter to the Brooklyn Eagle.

ADVENTURES
OF THE TWINS

Olive Roberts Barton

"I think I'd kind of like to visit Buster Bear on my vacation," said Weeny, the elephant, to the Twins. And I'm sure Buster would like to have you, too."

"Where does he live?" asked Nick.

"In a woods on the side of a mountain," said Weeny. "Nancy, will you please shake the wrinkles out of my nightgown and pack it up for me? I can't go to Buster's house all wrinkled up. And where are my speys?"

"You have them on," laughed Nancy. "They're right on your nose."

"Ha, ha, ha! I declare!" laughed Weeny. "If they'd been snake they'd have bitten me. That's me for you! Here, Nancy, I'll take them off and you can pack them, too."

So Nancy packed the speys and then she and Nick trotted off—I mean Weeny trotted off with them on his back. I mean the Twins on his back, not his speys.

I don't know what places they crossed but by and by they came to the tree-covered mountain side where Buster lived in a cave house with his mother and daddy.

When Weeny climbed up and rang the door-bell, Buster answered it, for indeed there was no one else to do it. He was all by himself.

He was so surprised to see them that all he could say was "Good-night!"

"You should say, 'Good-day,'" said Weeny, wrapping his trunk around Buster's neck and giving him a kiss.
